In the Kitchen

RICE PUDDING.

1 quart scalded milk.
1 cup boiled rice
1/2 cup sugar
1-4 teaspoon salt
2 eggs.
Rice may be cooked in water or milk. Salt and eggs, slightly beaten. 1 tablespoon butter may be added. Flavor as desired. Bake or steam in buttered shallow baking dish, till firm. Yolks only may be used. Meringue may be added, if desired.

CHOCOLATE PUDDING

1 tablespoon gelatine
1/2 cup sugar
1-4 teaspoon salt
2 cups milk
1 square chocolate
1/2 teaspoon vanilla.
Soak gelatine in 1/2 cup milk. Scald in double boiler other 1 1/2 cups milk, salt and chocolate. Add to gelatine and stir until dissolved. Cool slightly and add vanilla. Pour into a mold that has been rinsed in cold water. Chill until firm. One cup of evaporated milk and one cup of water may be used in place of the 2 cups of milk. Pudding may be served with whipped cream.

RHUBARB PIE.

1 pint rhubarb
1 cup sugar
1-4 teaspoon salt
2 tablespoons flour
Wash rhubarb, cut into 1/2 inch pieces, mix with other ingredients. Line deep pie pan with pie crust. Fill with mixture, being careful not to heap up. Measure pan before mixing ingredients, so that no more may be prepared than pan will hold. May be covered with an upper crust, or bared with narrow strips of crust, or baked in lower crust only, and meringue added. In this case, 1 or 2 beaten egg yolks are usually mixed with rhubarb.

COCONUT CREAM PIE.

1 1/2 cups scalded milk.
1-3 cup sugar
1-4 teaspoon salt
1/2 cup shredded coconut
2 tablespoons cornstarch.
Yolks 3 eggs
1. tablespoon butter
1/4 teaspoon vanilla
Add sugar, cornstarch and salt to egg yolks. Pour scalded milk into this, return to double boiler, stir and cook until thickened. Add the butter, coconut, vanilla. Pour into a pie tin lined with pastry. Bake in a hot oven 450 degrees fahrenheit, until the crust is set, then reduce the temperature to 325. The pie may be covered with meringue.

Defense Bond Sales Total $2,638,350

Defense bonds totaling $2,638,350 have been sold in Greensboro and rural Guilford, exclusive of High Point, since the opening of the bond sales, according to a compilation made yesterday by E. C. McLean, and N. S. Calhoun, co-chairmen of the Guilford county-Greensboro committee of the defense savings staff, with cooperation of the state director, Charles H. Robertson.

Progress is being made daily in the sale of both bonds and stamps, but no figure is given on stamps. There are dozens of places selling stamps, making it impossible to compile actual sales at any one time. There would, also, be a duplication of figures in the amount of bonds sold as the stamps would later be cashed in for bonds.

It has been estimated that there are many thousands dollars worth of stamps in books in this section which have not yet been turned in for bonds. Sale of bonds has been going on through the local post office, Gate City Building and Loan association, Home Federal Savings and Loan association, Home Industrial bank, Guilford National bank, Security National bank, and Bank of Gibsonville. Figures from the later bank, however, are not included in the total to date.

The co-chairmen reported further progress made in the payroll deduction plan of bond sales. It is planned to award certificates from the treasury department to local firms signing up 90 per cent in the salary allotment program of bond sales.

He Also Serves

Over and over again in these first months since the entry of our country in the second world war, we, as civilians, have been demanding to know what part we can play in defense. Our primary desire is to do something—anything—spectacular. It must be spectacular. We tend to work as individuals rather than as organizations. But unorganized, unplanned aid in defense can be as ineffective and more detrimental than no aid at all.

"The last line of Milton's poem 'On His Blindness' seems to propound the attitude to be developed by the American civilian. Obviously we can't all be ambulance drivers, first aid administrators, air raid warden, wardens but... 'he also serves who only stands and waits.' The type of waiting implied here is not a passive doing nothing about it, waiting, however it is an active waiting during which whatever small contributions or services we civilians have to offer will be freely given.

If, as a nation, we pledge ourselves to spend wisely, conserve what we already have, and waste nothing we will have taken a vital step in the ultimate victory of the air. Paper, fabric, rubber, water, and hundreds of every day commodities and utilities must be used wisely for these are the materials needed in defense.

We civilians must boost America's morale. We must be intelligently acquainted with the war situation so that we will be able to discredit much of the propaganda that will be circulated by the enemy to undermine American morale intentionally. We must write to the boys in the camps and in service wherever they may be cheerful letters full of the home news that they want so much to receive. The fact that they cannot answer as frequently as we should like them to should be no reason for our stopping writing them.

In order to support our country economically as well as to invest wisely against the depression that is slated to come at the end of the war, we should invest our money in Defense Bonds and Stamps.

Though we all can't be on the front lines in this war, remember it's the "army behind the army" that will in the final analysis have a lot to say about who's going to win this war!
