at peace so long as it sees others more fortunate than itself.

Perhaps the most tragic consequences of such a state of mind is a resulting sense of frustration and defeat. The greedy appetite is never satisfied. Like the rich fool in the lesson, it is forever saying to itself, "I will pull down my barns, and build greater." Material values such as houses, lands, and machinery were never intended to be ends in themselves. They cannot satisfy.

DECEMBER 7th 1941 — REMEMBER!!MEBANE NEWS

ed. Economic freedom and opportunity must be made available for all people, but let us not commit the error of thinking that this will ensure our salvation. Only a contented mind, free from avarice, selfishness, and greed, can assure permanent security and peace.

REGISTER NATION'S NURSES

Every graduate nurse throughout the nation is asked by the War Manpower Commission to register at a local hospital or health center during National Nurses Mobilization Week, beginning February 7. The appeal is being made to graduate nurses of all ages, no matter where they live or how long they have been away from active practice. As war fronts expand, more and more nurses will be demanded by the armed forces, and they must be replaced by nurses now inactive.

Miss Mary Evans of Greensboro spent the week-end in Mebane.
