

ND SALE LEADERS—Perry J. Brown, left, chairman, and Dead. C. McLaughlin, right, of A. and T. college, North Caroling chainan, Negro division of the war finance committee, are in charge of hd sales for the fourth war loan campaign, as well as for sale compted with the appearance of Bill Bojangles Robinson, famous generated with the appearance of Bill Bojangles Robinson, famous

Sennett College To Graduate Nine

Mine students will complete their udles, at Bennett college at the hd of the present semester, January 28, it was announced last week by the college. Although their actual scholastic requirements are completed, they will receive their degrees at the regular commencement exercises in May.

The graduates and their major fields are: Miss Myrtle Alston, Greensboro, lementary education; Miss Valeria Chappelle, Columbia, S. C., sociology; Miss Dorothy Fisher, Salisbury, home economics; Miss Frankle Hardwick, Talladega, Alabama, home economics; Miss Elestae Merrick, Providence, R.I., history; Miss Marguerite Pope, Newport News, Va.; home economics; Miss Cynthia Sciences; Miss Bettle Wade, Winston-Salem, N.O., history; and Miss-Sylvia Wallace, Greensboro, elementary education.

Future plans of the graduates include graduate school, medicine, teaching and other vocations.

BUYING BONDS

Announcement has been made by I. H. Jones, principal, the Negro high school, of Mount Airy, that plans are going forward at his school to invest enough funds in war bonds to build a modern gymnssium after the war.

war bonus to build a modern gymnasium after the war. Mr. Jones states that the plan is being well received by the facplay, students and patrons of the school.

A. AND T. RALLY

BILL ROBINSON

A war bond rally featuring an all-soldier show and Bill "Bojangles" Robinbus, tarmad "the world's greatest tap dancer", was held Thursday night in Richard B. Harrison auditorium, dance orchestras. Corp. C. A. Roberts introduced Barbara Canada, president of the student council, who presented Robinson with a token from the student body, a belt with a golden buckle. Captain George H. Fitch.

Captain George H. Fitch, special service officer of BTC 10, accompanied the soldiers. Lucky Millinder and his Broadway orchestra featuring Judy Carol and Trevor Bacon, War Loan Drive Workers Named By Chm. Brown

Names of the 17 men and women who wil lassist him in waging the fourth war loan drive among the Negroes of Greensboro have been announced by Perry J. Brown, chairman.

One of the events arranged by Chairman Brown and his associates was the rally and show at A. and T. college Thursday night which featured the appearance in person of Bill "Bojangles" Robinson, generally acclaimed as the world's outstanding tap dancer. His appearance was an event on the entertainment schedule of Negro troops in training at BTC No. 10 was an event on the entertainment schedule of Negro troops in training at BTC No. 10 -Negroes taking active parts in pushing the sale of invasion or fourth war loan bonds include:

President F. D. Bluford, A. and T. college; Robert Martin, professor at A. and T. college; President D. D. Jones, Bennett college, A. A. Morisey, professor at Beanett college; J. A. Tarpley, principal of J. B. Dudley high school; W. L. Jones, principal of Washington Street Elementary school; Mrs. G. Collins Hunt, superintendent of L. Richardson Memorial hospital; Assistant Superintendent Queen D. Stokes, of the Richardson hospital; Mrs. Nannie G. Bynum, principal of East White Oak Grammar school; T. E. Hummons, executive secretary of Hayes-Taylor Y. M. C. A.; B. A. Hall, Gullford county farm agent; Dean J. C. McLaughlin, of A. and T. college, state administrator for the war finance committee, and M. H. Peek, L. R. Russell, J. W. Crawford, Tom Todd and Vance Standback, business men.

TWO NEGRO POLICE APPOINTED BY CITY

'Two Negroes have been made members of the Greensboro police' department and have been administered the usual oath of office. The first of the race to become police officers in this city are: Samuel A. Penn, 32, of 330 West Brägg street; John L. Montgomery, 36, or 2170 Byrd street. Temporarily they have been assigned to plainclothes duty and placed on duty in the Negro sections of the city on the shift that serves from 4 p. m. to midnight. They will replace or relieve the two white officer who have had "APP"

after the ent of the two men announced by Cramination was ry A. Yancey and Canager Hen-L. L. Jarvis. Other cittes Police area, notably Charlotte, hiv-Negro policemen and they have made good records.

soloist, appeared in concert at the college yesterday afternoon. Robinson presented the band.

Beauregard Hightower Dies At Home Here; Funeral On Sunday

BEAUREGARD HIGHTOWER

Manning Jackson Honored By Four Aces At Dinner

The Foure Ace Club, composed of a number of young Negro men of Greensboro, entertained with a farewell party in honor of Manning Jackson, who left Thursday morning to enter the armed forces of the nation at Fort Bragg, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Carter, 242 West Wittington street, Wednesday evening, January 19.

Mr. Jackson was a valued and highly regarded, employee of Carson C. Deal, the printer, up until his induction at Fort Bragg. The menu for the dinner that opened the evening's festivities consisted of fried chicken, English peas, potato salad, pickles, hot rolls, ice cream, cake, mints and peanuts fruit and, of course, smokes.

Officers of the Four Ace Clu are Georgo A. Garreit, president; Manning Jackson, vice president; Thomas Carter, secretary; Charles Jackson, treasurer, and Timothy Morrow, business manager.

Among those present for the farewell-good luck dinner were Sgt. William L. Euchelberger, James Alovender Benton, George H. Garrett, Timtony Morrow, Charles, Jackson, Thomas L. Carter, Lawrence Carter, Thomas E. Fambrough, and Misses Lorena Carter, Alberta Fambrough, Frances J. Aldridge, Henrietta Scales, Annie S. Garland and Claudia M. Scott.

BULLDOGS DEFEAT TWIN CITY TEACHERS

A. and T. college's Bulldogs Whed in a 41-27 victory over last nigSalem Teachera here ring and Captain Roy Gearthe scoring path Stanley set 10 points, respectives 12 and The first half w. Beauregard G. Hightower, aged about 80 years, one of Greensboro's most highly respected and regarded Negro citizens, died at his home, 130 North Dudley street, at 12:40 o'clock. Thursday afternoon. Death resulted from complications arising during a recent attack of influenza, and an operation.

Funeral services will be conducted from St. Matthews Methodist church Sunday afternoon at 1 o'clock, Rev. J. E. Brower officiating. The deceased had been a member of this church since 1889, was a member of its board of stewards, was pre.ldent of the board of Ushers for 39 years, charter member of the Interdéhominational Ush er Union formed 20 years ago, and had various other religious and fraternal connections. Surviving are the widow, two Surviving are the widow, two sons, E. Kermit Hightower, well known Greensboro attorney, and Rev. Arthur V. B. Hightower, of Pittsburgh, Pa.

Nev. Arthur V. B. Hightower, of Pittaburgh, Pa. In the recent Emancipation Day issue of The Future Outlook, there was a full page sketch of Beauregard Hightower sponsored by the Carolina Steel and Iron company. In part, this sketch said: "An outstanding example of "An outstanding example of the rewards offered in America for those who combine honest effort with sincere regard for the weifare of others is Beauregard G. Hightower.

"More than Eighty years has been his span of life and they've been useful to his community since 18183, when he enteded Bennett college (A college started in the basement of St. Matthews church), he has worked faithfully and diligently. "For three years he taught but "For three years he taught but his health would not permit his continiung inside work and for 42 years he served Mendenhall Lumber company until age brought retirement from active labor. Anything good you say about Beauregard Hightower is right," says the present active mannger of this firm with whom he was so long associated and this ysentiment is voiced b numerous citizens of the city.

"Nor did his years of service pass unrewarded! He has a most comforwhie home and has educated s family, one son being a practicing attorney in Greensboro. Athough advanced in years he is still young in mind and continues to convey to others by word and deed a quality which those who know him credit him with — 'His word is his bond'."

Burial will be made at Maplewood cemetery.

fought, A. and T. holding a twopoint lead at intermission. However, the Buildogs toot charge after the rest period and pulled away.