

FUTURE OUTLOOK

VOLUME III, NO. 21

GREENSBORO, N. C., SATURDAY, APRIL 1, 1944

PRICE: 5c

The pleasant and agreeable personality shown above is the lovely Miss Lois Howard, popular A. and T. College, Greensboro, N. C. senior, who is majoring in social science. She will receive her degree in June.

Though busy in her studies Miss Howard has taken an active part in student life, being president of the YWCA Women's Self-Governing Organization, and a member of the AKA Sorority.

The talented senior enjoys reading and answering the mail of her pen pals.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel B. Howard, of Wilmington, N. C.

Jackson Heard At Y Memorial Service

William S. Jackson, director of Fayetteville Street USO center, Durham, N. C., addressed a large crowd of people attending the 5th annual memorial service honoring the late Mrs. Sally Hayes and Andrew J. Taylor on last Sunday afternoon at Richard B. Harrison auditorium, A. and T. college. The speaker centered his address around "G. I. Joe," and his interest in problems of juvenile delinquency back home.

Among the points he stressed were the laxity in school attendance, loitering on street corners and in questionable places, the need for personal cleanliness, thrift, respect for womanhood, church attendance, and the value of prayer. The speaker was introduced by Dr. William M. Hampton. Following the service was Dr. George H. Evans, member of boys work committee, Mrs. C. B. Campbell, pianist for the occasion, and in singing of hymns. Rev. J. E. Brower, pastor of St. Matthews M. E. church, gave the invocation. A choral group from Washington Grammar school with 20 members gave several selections. This group was directed by Mrs. A. C. Bowling and Mrs. Chavis. Remarks were made by Mr. Andrew Taylor and Dr. William Hampton gave a brief history of the life of Mrs. Sally Hayes.

duced members of both Hayes and Taylor families.

The Y.M.C.A. Pioneer club of Jacksonville school and other pioneers led in the singing of the Pioneer Song, accompanied by Mrs. Besse Campbell at the piano. An added feature of the program was the presentation of awards to the most outstanding boys in the 'Y' Friendly Indian and Pioneer clubs in the city schools. The following boys were given awards: Fleming Cheek, Jonesboro school; James Blackman, Charles Moore school; Walter Holmes, Jacksonville school; Barry Coleman, J. C. Price school; William Hall, Washington Grammar school; and Horace Mayes, Washington Primary school.

The program closed with announcements by Secretary T. E. Hummons, selections by the choral group from Washington Grammar school, and the benediction by Rev. J. E. Brower, of St. Matthews church.

Mrs. Lucille Beatha was honored by a surprise birthday party Monday, March 27th. Mrs. Beatha received many useful gifts from her guests. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. James Boone, Mrs. Elsie Bryant and son, Fred Bryant, Jr., Mrs. Pauline Long, Mrs. Alma Byrd, Mrs. Lillian Blair, Mrs. Dorothy Garner, and Mrs. Mavola Gillespie and Miss Nancy Stout.

Negro Health Week To Be Observed Here

National Negro health week, a movement founded by the late Dr. Booker T. Washington, pioneer Negro educator and a guiding influence in the early development of Tuskegee Institute, Tuskegee, Ala., 30 years ago, will be observed at A. and T. college April 5-9, Dr. F. D. Bluford, president, announced.

Dr. F. E. Davis, college physician, will direct the program. The speakers and participants will be announced later.

The health week comprises the following special days and activities:

- Sunday, April 2—Mobilization day, health sermons, health talks, mass meetings; Monday, April 3—Home health day, home clean-ups, parents' meetings; Tuesday, April 4—Community sanitation day, activities for sanitary needs and improvements; Wednesday, April 5—Special campaign day, survey of community health needs; Thursday, April 6—Adults' health day, emphasis on annual health examination, with opportunities for examination, health talks to men's and women's organizations.
- Friday, April 7—School health and safety day; health essays, songs, games, plays, parades, pageants, health examinations for pre-school and school children, school clean-up; Saturday, April 8—General clean-up day, co-operative scale clean-up activities, inspection of community campaign results; Sunday, April 9—Report and follow-up day. — Greensboro Daily News.

MUSIC EDUCATION NATIONAL CONFERENCE HOLDS BIENNIAL MEETING

The Music Educators' National Conference in the 28th session, held its biennial meeting in St. Louis, Mo., March 2-8, 1944.

This meeting was attended by outstanding music educators from all parts of the United States, Latin American countries and Canada.

The general theme of the conference was "Widening Horizons for Music Education," with Miss Lilla Bell Pitts, president, presiding.

Some of the outstanding leaders of music education attending the conference, and serving on the various committees were Dean Warner Lawson, of Howard university; Mrs. Eloise Logan Penn, supervisor of music, Greensboro; Mrs. Aidenia W. Davis, Richmond, Va.; Mr. James A. Dillard, Winston-Salem Teachers' college; Mr. Sherman Greene, Norfolk, Va.; Miss Evelyn Johnson, Elizabeth City Teachers' College, and many others.

The program as presented at St. Louis will broaden international cultural relations of all lands and peoples.

Charles C. Wimbish Enters Race For State Senate From Guilford

CHARLES C. WIMBISH

MUSIC EXTRAVANGAZA MEMORIAL STADIUM SUNDAY, MAY 21

One of the South's Greatest Musical Festivals is in store for North Carolina when L. R. Russell presents his second annual "Extravaganza" in World War Memorial stadium Sunday, May 21, at 3:00 p. m.

This event of entertainment will feature a list of 24 selected quartets from North Carolina, South Carolina and Virginia, as well as several widely-known vocalists, stage and radio stars.

High spots of the event will include the kiddie party at the Palace Theater Saturday morning, May 20, at 10 o'clock, for 1,000 kids, and the doll parade Sunday, May 21, at 2:00 p. m., with 100 children of Greensboro participating. The parade down the principal streets will precede the concert at the stadium.

The famed Selah Jubilee Singers of New York, heard daily over station WPTF, Raleigh, will top the list of top-notch musical groups, when they lend their voices to a mammoth afternoon of song.

The promoter plans in addition, a number of cash prizes and awards to be distributed at the stadium.

NEGRO WOMAN, 107 DIES IN VIRGINIA

The death is reported near Vandoia, in Pittsylvania county, Virginia, of Mary Willis Hatchett, Negro woman, whose family members say was 107 years of age. They said that her recollection of regional events in past history confirmed her age and that until her final illness of physical exhaustion she was clear minded and in good health. She was born in Prince Edward county, spent most of her life in Caswell county, North Carolina, and some years ago moved to the home of a great-great-granddaughter.

She leaves a son, a granddaughter, two great-grand-daugh-

Charles C. Wimbish, who last week retired as chairman of the county board of elections, paid his filing fee to the new chairman, J. Leslie Abbott, and officially became a candidate for the Democratic nomination to the state senate from Guilford.

Wimbish issued a formal statement in which he said:

"In announcing my candidacy for the state senate, it is with the full realization of the responsibilities of this office, and if chosen to represent the county, I pledge to the citizens of the county and state that in all proposed legislation I will advocate those measures which I believe to be to the best interests of those affected by such legislation.

"I will not become a member of the state senate as the representative of any group or special interests, but solely as the representative of the people of Guilford county, contributing what I can to the wise and proper administration of state and county affairs."

Political gossip in recent weeks centered around the possibility that Wimbish would get in the race, but he was quoted as saying he would not consider it if former Senator Thomas J. Gold, Sr., of High Point, wanted the senatorship again. Gold, however, eliminated himself, saying he planned to devote his time to the private practice of law and other activities. That left the decision pretty much up to Wimbish, who is a prominent insurance man, much interested in political and civic affairs, and popular among his fellows.

Wimbish became chairman of the board of elections in 1942 when D. E. Hudgins resigned to become state senator.

A native of Virginia, Wimbish came to Greensboro in early life. After graduating from Bessemer high school he became office boy for the old Southern Life and Trust company, later being elevated to secretary and agency manager. In 1933 he established his own insurance business, taking over the state agency of National Life Insurance Company of Vermont. He saw service overseas in the first world war and is a member of both American Legion and Veterans of Foreign Wars. For 14 years he has been chairman of the Salvation Army board and is president of Sedgefield Country club. He is active in the Community Chest, having been a member of the board since 1928. He formerly served the chest as secretary.

11C BEER APRIL 1

When the new federal taxes take effect the first of the month, chances are the drinkers of draft beer will find the familiar 10-cent mug selling for 11 cents. This will be one of the results of the higher taxes on all alcoholic beverages which will also result in an additional penny added to the price of bottled beer.

ters and 13 great-great-grandchildren. — Greensboro Daily News.