

FUTURE OUTLOOK

VOLUME III, NUMBER 51

GREENSBORO, N. C., SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 4, 1944

PRICE: 5c

Youth Held On Capital Charge

Julius Clifford Donnell, 17-year-old youth, whose father was one of the two men who died in the electric chair for the murder and robbery of Postmaster A. B. Andrew of Sedalia on the night before Thanksgiving day in 1931, was held in the city jail Wednesday without bond on the capital charge of criminal assault.

Police authorities said that Donnell was arrested at 2 a. m. following a reported criminal attack on Lucille Stewart, 18, of 511 South Booker street, about one hour earlier.

The Stewart girl, a restaurant worker, was also held by police as a witness for the state.

Police said their investigation indicated that Donnell had walked for a short distance with the girl before he allegedly seized and dragged her about 12 yards off East Washington street into a grass field near the intersection of Washington and Booker streets. The hour was fixed at 1 a. m.

Donnell, who gave his address as 701 Sandstrom street, told police that his father was Nord Donnell, who with Leroy Lee, was electrocuted for the murder and robbery of the Sedalia postmaster.

Police quoted the Stewart girl as saying that Donnell referred to his father's electrocution and threatened that if she reported the alleged attack he could "do the same thing."

Date for a preliminary hearing the case had not been set.

Court Grants Continuance In Trial of Frank Millings

On motion of the state, Judge Blackstock allowed continuance in the case of Frank Elliott Millings, charged with the murder in connection with the pistol slaying of a ORD soldier, Pvt. James L. Griggs, at Millings' apartment, East Market street.

Willie Banks Phipps, charged with first degree burglary, submitted to a charge of assault on female, which was accepted by the state. Judge Blackstock did not pass judgment immediately.

Raymond Payne, 18-year-old White Oak youth, charged with assault with deadly weapon with intent to kill, and convicted of assault with deadly weapon, inflicting serious bodily injury, drew a sentence of two years on the roads.

Payne was convicted of assaulting W. A. Davis, elderly White Oak man, the night of September 25. Payne was recently captured in Raleigh and returned to this county.