

FUTURE OUTLOOK

VOL. 6, NO. 44

GREENSBORO, N. C., SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 27, 1947

PRICE: 5 CENTS

BENNETT COLLEGE GIVEN LARGE SUM

The addition of $662,600 to the capital account of Bennett College in recent months was announced by President David D. Jones Tuesday at the first annual Annie Merner Pfeiffer Memorial Day held in the college chapel which bears her name.

Of the above sum, $412,500 came from the residuary estate of the late Mrs. Pfeiffer upon the recommendation of the executors, Garfield D. Merner, of San Francisco, Harry E. James and Carl Merner of New York.

In making the announcement President Jones said that the latest gifts bring the total gifts from the Pfeiffer family to $1,132,500 which, when coupled with the gifts to Pfeiffer Junior College at Misenheimer, total more than $3,000,000 invested in North Carolina out of about $15,000,000 given away.

The interest of the Pfeiffer family is being continued through membership on the Bennett board of trustees of Mrs. Harry E. James, niece, and member of the investment committee, and Garfield D. Merner, a nephew, who is chairman of the post-war planning committee of the college.

The lives of Mrs. Pfeiffer and her husband, Henry Pfeiffer, exemplify the principles of Christian stewardship. Dr. Harris Franklin Rall said in his memorial address.

The speaker, who is a professor at the Garrett Theological Institute, Evanston, Ill., relied on many personal experiences with the Pfeiffer and Merner families. He said that their genealogies were grounded in a philosophy of stewardship which had height, depth, and broadness and was reflected in their deep concern for human welfare.

Dr. Rall spoke of the beauty, the spirit of worship, and the presence of youth in the chapel as being three factors which inspired Mrs. Pfeiffer to contribute to Bennett College.

He praised the modesty of the Pfeiffers who lived humbly despite their wealth and recalled that Pfeiffer preferred to ride the subway to work in New York and explained that the savings could mean additional giving.

President Jones spoke briefly of the first years of his presidency and Mrs. Pfeiffer's first visit to the college when she decided to make her first gift of $100,000 which made possible the erection of Pfeiffer Residence Hall.

The students were represented by Virginia Wagstaff, president of the student senate. A special litany of gratitude was led by Mrs. Barbara Johnson Wells, an alumna of the college.

Rev. G. M. Phelps, pastor of St. Matthews Methodist church, and Rev. R. D. Crockett, of Bennett College, assisted in the service.

Aggies Set For Wilberforce

Old North State Elks Lodge No. 87 Presents Song Contest

The above photo shows the crowning of "Miss Elk," which took place at Memorial Stadium Sunday, September 21, at the Fall Song and Quartette contest of the Old North State Elks' Lodge No. 87. Reading from left to right, seen in the picture are

The Old North State Elks' Lodge No. 87 presented its song and quartet contest Sunday, September 21, at 2 p. m., in Memorial Stadium. It was a very nice affair as a beginner. Master of ceremonies for the affair was

Alvis Rhodes, Exalted Ruler. Miss Pauline Lee, of Reidsville, was crowned "Miss Elk", by the state president, Lonnie Reynolds, and was also presented a round trip ticket to Washington, D. C. by the Lodge. Mrs. Mary Noble, Daughter Ruler Mary Noble, Old North State Temple No. 142; Mrs. Beatrice A. Jeffries; Miss Corrina Clarke; L. E. Reynolds, North Carolina State president, I. B. P. O. E. of W., Miss Pauline Lee, who was crowned "Miss Elk," and Alvis Rhodes, Exalted Ruler of Old North State Lodge No. 87.

Daughter Ruler, made the presentation, and Mrs. Beatrice Allen Jeffries and Miss Corrina Clarke were her escorts from Temple No. 142, Greensboro.

The Reidsville Harmonizers won the contest as best quartet.

Pair Sentenced On Immoral Charge; Son Assaults Mother

Willie Lewis Davis, 306 York street, was sentenced to 60 days for assault on his mother, Mrs. Josephine Andres, Tuesday morning, September 23, and four months on the county roads to run concurrently, for occupying a room at his mother's home for immoral purposes.

Jeanette Bidding, of 1516 1/2 E. Market street, was sentenced to 60 days or $10 and cost of court for occupying a room with Davis in his mother's home.

Mrs. Andres told before an open court that she heard queer noises in her front room about 3 o'clock Tuesday morning, and upon investigating, she found the couple in her bed. She ordered Jeanette Bidding out of her house at once, and threatened to call the law. Her son ran to the door where his mother was standing, and pushed her down and told her she had no business in his room. Mrs. Andres said this made her so angry, she didn't wait to call the law over the telephone of a nearby neighbor's residence, but walked to the police station and explained the matter to "Doc" Hiatt and another officer. They escorted her back to her home, and upon their arrival, one of the officers went to the back door, the other going to the front door. Upon entering, they found the couple still inside. Jeanette, who had her shoes off, stated that she had been drinking and was out, and Davis came to her rescue and took her in for a comfortable night's rest.

Testifying on the witness stand, Davis denied assaulting his mother, but admitted having Jeanette in his room with him. Thus the sentence of 60 days for assault and four months for occupying a room for immoral purposes for Davis, and 60 days or $10 and costs for Jeanette Bidding for the immoral conduct charge.

Jury Acquits Palmer Of Attempt Charge

Bonnie Palmer, 41-year-old Greensboro man accused of attempted criminal assault on a seven-year-old girl on August 27 was found innocent by a jury in Guilford Superior Court here Wednesday after brief deliberation.

Palmer took the stand Wednesday at noon to deny that he molested the child for whom he had been engaged as a "babysitter" on August 27.

The state's cast was built upon testimony of the little girl who had told how Palmer attempted to ravish her, and the mother's story of finding evidence of an attack. A doctor who examined the child said he found she had a venereal disease which might have been contracted when the alleged offense took place.

(Continued On Page Ten)

Game Takes National Spotlight

The stage is all set for the long awaited opening gridiron battle between the A. and T. Aggies and the colorful Wilberforce University Green Wave. Time for this great intersectional contest has been set at 8:15 p. m. tonight at Memorial Stadium. Thousands of local football followers are expected to throng the stadium for this tilt, and speculation is running rampant throughout Sepia football circles over the outcome of this contest.

In addition to this game having great possibilities of being a wide-open affair, last-minute developments point to a "battle of fullbacks" in the local college's opening contest. The Aggies are setting a lot of store by their two great fullback aces, Robert (Stonewall) Jackson, and Muriel (Hammer) Reid.

Aggie Backs

Both of these Aggie backs are ruthless, reckless line-slashers deluxe. Then, in addition, Reid has an added advantage of being A. and T.'s prize kicker. He has, throughout pre-season training, been booting 50-yard punts with a monotonous degree of regularity. Stonewall, the Aggies' other powerful sensation, tips the scales at 210 pounds, and is easily the fastest man on the Aggie squad. Jackson has been clocked in less than 10 seconds in the 100-yard dash, and is known and respected throughout the CIAA circuit as a hard man to stop.

But the Buckeye lads from Ohio have their fullback star, too. He's Edward (Tip) Tipton. Weighing in at 190 pounds, Tip stands five feet 11 inches, and is Wilberforce's contribution to the All-Midwestern Eleven last year. He'll be the man the Aggies will have to throttle if they're to come out on top in their initial tilt here today.

Messrs. Country Lewis, Bobby Lee, and Jim Walker are counting heavily on Tipton to carry the brunt of the attack this season as he has filled the work horse role for the Ohioans for the past two seasons. In addition to being a great line plunger last year, Tipton's broken field running was quite outstanding for a fullback, being done with the east of a scat-back runner. However, the husky, 21-year-old Junior from Dayton does his number best in line-slashing.

Powerful Man

In the Wilberforce-West Virginia game last Thanksgiving Day, which ended 13-13, he carried three Virginians across the goal line with his powerful lunge scoring the tying marker.

In the meantime, out at the Aggies' camp, Coach Bell and his assistants, Eldridge Williams, Howard Gentry and Ray Hopson, have been doing yeomanlike duty

(Continued On Page Seven)