Young America Cooks—

"Casserolls" Are Bride's Choice

WHOLE WHEAT "CASSEROLLS" will create a small sensation when they're served up in the pretty casserole dish in which they're baked.

Bake Them In Pretty Dish

Many a bride who tries yeast baking for the first time chooses a roll recipe because of its ease of preparation. This one for "Casserolls" is a particularly good one for beginners. The rolls are easy to shape and look particularly attractive served in the decorative casserole in which they're baked. And show us the girl who isn't lucky enough to receive at least one ovenware dish on her bridal day!

Bake part of the recipe in the casserole for a special Sunday dinner; bake the rest in the usual baking pan, cool and store for another meal. If you plan to freeze them, cool the rolls first by removing them from the casserole or pan to a wire rack, then wrap them in aluminum foil or freezer paper.

CASSEROLLS

- 1 cup milk
 - 2 tablespoons dark molasses
 - 2 tablespoons sugar
 - 2 teaspoons salt
 - 1/4 cup Fleischmann's Margarine
 - 1/2 cup warm water
 - 2 packages or cakes Fleischmann's Yeast, active dry or compressed
 - 2 1/4 cups whole wheat flour
 - 2 1/2 cups sifted enriched flour
- Scald milk; stir in molasses, sugar, salt and Fleischmann's Margarine; cool to lukewarm. Measure warm water into large warm bowl. Sprinkle or crumble dissolved. Stir in lukewarm milk mixture. Combine flours; stir half of mixture into liquid mixture; beat until smooth. Stir in remaining flour mixture. Turn dough out onto lightly floured board; knead until smooth and elastic, about 10 minutes.

Place in greased bowl, turning once to grease top. Cover; let rise in warm place, free from draft, until doubled in bulk, about 1 hour. Punch down and turn onto lightly floured board. Divide dough in half. Form each half into 12-inch roll; cut each roll into 12 equal pieces. Form into balls. Place balls about 1/2 inch apart in greased shallow casserole; for pan rolls place balls 1/4 inch apart in greased round or square pan. Cover; let rise in warm place, free from draft, until doubled in bulk, about 50 minutes. Bake at 375°F. about 25 minutes for rolls in casserole; about 30 minutes for pan rolls.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Floyd Ambrose. Mrs. Ambrose is the former Miss Edith I. Behlin. Mrs. King had the pleasure of meeting many more of her native home friends. The view of the wax museum was most interesting during her sight seeing tour.
