TWO CROPS

MADE EACH YEAR

W. E. Ware and Sons are intensive, diversifying farmers, stock raisers and fruit growers.

Mr. W. E. Ware who lives on Potts' Creek 3 1/2 miles west of town was here Friday to ship some fruit to his daughter in Charlotte. He had a bucket full left over to the greater part of which we fell heir. The fruit consisted of peaches and apples of a most splendid variety. They were big nice specimens and of an especially fine flavor.

Mr. Ware and his sons are associated in farming and are making it a paying business. They are not extensive but intensive farmers with a broad diversity of crops and products. They cultivate fifty acres of land with three horses and make two full crops a year. They follow a big crop of clover and oats with corn and follow wheat with corn. On 14 acres last year the corn crop amounted to 200 bushels. The most of that 500 bushels is lying back in the barn today unshucked and untouched.

They pasture lots of land and make a specialty of highly bred horses, mules, cattle and hogs. Their fruit is abundant and has taken prizes at fairs all over the state.

In short the Wares live at home and board at the same place.

The editor and his wife have a date to appropriate a whole day on the farm when melons get red and maybe then we'll be able to tell more about the man with the hoe.

A RUNAWAY

LAST THURSDAY

Mrs. F. M. McDaniel and child and Miss Josie Baumgardner were imperiled.

A very excitable runaway occurred here Thursday afternoon beginning at the rear of H. T. Fulton's store in the Mauney back lot and terminating in front of the post office on Mountain street. Fortunately nobody was hurt but the escape was narrow. One wheel of the wagon to which the runaway horse was hitched was demolished and J. C. Baumgardner's buggy was stove up from a rear on collision with the wagon.

The horse and wagon belonged to H. T. Fulton. The horse was hitched by a weight which proved insufficient when he decided to run. He came out of the back lot into Cherokee street the wheel striking a telephone pole which proved fatal to the wheel. Mrs. F. M. McDaniel and little child and Miss Josie Baumgardner had just driven up to the side of the street and stopped in front of the market. An effort was made to keep the runaway horse from turning into Mountain street and imperiling the ladies but he turned in anyway and struck the buggy in the rear with a wheel of the wagon before the ladies had time to get out. Fortunately the horse to the buggy took no fright and a man grabbed the buggy and kept it from turning over until the ladies could be extricated. Simultaneously some one else stooped the runaway horse.

STAY AT HOME

SAYS HEALTH BOARD

Consumption can be cured in any part of United States—Health Bulletin

Press Article
North Carolina State Board of Health
June 25, 1915.

From 10,000 to 15,000 consumptives go West every year in search of health. This estimate is based on recent investigations made by the U. S. Public Health Service, Colorado, California, Arizona, New Mexico and Texas are the states that attract consumptives most strongly and are the states furnishing the data of investigation.

The points bearing especially warning and advice to North Carolinians are these: From 50 to fifty per cent of these consumptives are hopeless cases and die within six months after their arrival, the percentage of those dying within 30 days running as high as fifteen.

A large but unknown percentage die in almshouses or are the recipients of charity and the great majority of these could have been made comfortable in their last days if they had stayed at home among friends and relatives.

No one should think of going West or Southwest for his health unless he has at least $1,000 above his railroad fare, and can leave all his cares, worries and trouble at home; and no one should go who is in an advanced stage of tuberculosis or who has not taken careful medical advice.

Tuberculosis can be cured in any part of the United States, and it is far better for a consumptive of moderate means to go to a sanatorium near at home than to go West and live in a slightly more favorable climate without proper food or medical care.
