Singing Sunday at Bessemer City

Sunday is singing convention at Bessemer City. So far as we are able to learn all the choirs heretofore participating in the convention are in full readiness for the occasion and two or more new choirs are reported. We are glad to see the choirs falling in line for we are satisfied that the Sunday Schools and Churches whose choirs avail themselves of this opportunity of Christian association and concerted worship are profiting thereby. Let us go up in the spirit of worship and let the Master be glorified.

The "HIGHLANDER" In Hands of Receiver

The Highlander published at Shelby with Mr. B. H. DePriest as editor and controlling stockholder is in the hands of a receiver. How it came to be there is better explained in the two articles below, one from the Highlander and the other from the Star, than we could do. Read them both.

(Cleveland Star)

Mr. G. W. DePriest of The Highlander Publishing Co., asked for a receivership of said corporation before His Honor Judge J. L. Webb this week on the ground that the company is insolvent and a temporary receivership was granted with Mr. J. H. Quinn of the local bar receiver, the papers being returnable at the next term of Cleveland Superior Court which convenes Nov. 1st. Mr. Quinn has qualified given bond and taken charge of the plant until the matter has been heard at which time it will be determined whether the Highlander will continue or be sold under order of court to meet indebtedness.

It is rumored that a Republican paper is in process of organization to buy out the Highlander's equipment and issue another paper as a party organization with Mr. B. H. DePriest, editor. Life time stock subscriptions are being solicited at $10 per share. —Highlander.

A movement has been on foot for several weeks to raise enough money to take over The Highlander, clear of debts and Democratic stock and issue a straight Republican paper.

Hearing of this, certain influences high up in local Democratic councils, made a desperate but ineffectual effort to close the plant up, for keeps.

But Editor DePriest, as attorney in fact for his father a creditor, forestalled their attempt, by securing the appointment of Hon. J. H. Quinn, his Republican warhorse of this section, as receiver, to hold the assets of the paper, in fact from stock of appreciation and levy, pending the legal sale of the paper to the new company, now in process of organization.

They did close us for a few days, pending the filing of Mr. DePriest as receiver. They had no effect, however.

Keeter-Jenkins

(Cleveland Star)

One of the prettiest and most widely interesting weddings of this section was that of Miss Ethel Keeter and Mr. James H. Jenkins, Jr. Wednesday afternoon at 3:30 at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Keeter at Grover. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. R. Miller of Kings Mountain in the presence of a host of friends many from Shelby, Rock Hill, Blacksburg and Gastonia. The home was beautifully decorated with ferns and flowers and the ceremony was performed in front of a bank of evergreens in the dimly lighted parlor. First to enter were the little ribbon bearers Kermit Keeter, the young son of Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Keeter and little Miss Ruth Crisp the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Crisp of Grover. Next came little Miss Mary Helen Keeter, sister of the bride as flower girl. The groom entered on the arm of his best man, Mr. Geo. Jenkins of Rock Hill. Little Miss Louise Blue, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Furman Blue of Blacksburg was ring bearer, while the attractive Miss Lenora Keeter, sister of the bride, acted as maid of honor. The bride entered on the arm of her father, Mr. D. J. Keeter who gave her away. She carried a beautiful bouquet of lilies of the valley and roses and wore a handsome champagne gown trimmed in pearls with veil caught with orange blossoms. The double ring ceremony was used. Miss Lela Morris of Union Mills teacher of music at Piedmont High School played Mendelssohn's wedding march in her matchless style and during the ceremony rendered softly "To a Wild Rose" by MacDowell.

Previous to the ceremony a reception was held in the hospitable Keeter home. Miss Jennie Whisman of Charlotte presiding over the punch bowl. A Rock Hill orchestra composed of Mr. Julian B. Johnston playing the clarinet, Mr. J. Russel McElwain the violin, and Mrs. Julian B. Johnston the piano gave a thirty minute prelude, with Miss Mary Fraw of Gastonia, whose voice is noted for its volume and beauty, rendering several solos.

Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Jenkins left for Charlotte where they caught no. 88 for a ten day trip to Washington, Baltimore, New York and other points. After their return they will make their home in Rock Hill.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Keeter and is a graduate of the State Normal at Greensboro. She taught one year in the Lenoir graded school and is a most talented and attractive young lady. The Keeters are one of the most highly esteemed families of this County and the bride has a large circle of friends in this section of the two Carolinas which makes the wedding of particular interest. Mr. Jenkins is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Jenkins, of Rock Hill and holds a respectable position with the Central National Bank of Rock Hill.

FLORAL FAIR THE D

BEGINS TODAY

IN HANDS

Annual event opens today at twelve o'clock.

Capt. F. Dilling pointed to

The Floral Fair opens today at twelve o'clock. The interior of the Kings Mountain Garage building has been changed to a beautiful sea of Chrysanthemums interspersed with good things to eat. The doors will open for business just at twelve o'clock, right when everybody wants dinner, and the first item of business will be lunch.

Let everybody turn out to the fair and see the flowers and help out in every way. The money put into this event will be well invested. For in goes without saying that the ladies will use the returns to our every good.

Capt. F. Dilling returned Thursday from a several days business trip to New York and Philadelphia.
