HOUSE WARMING

Mrs. Madeline Ligon was honored at a most delightful House-Warming given as a surprise to her by a number of her friends. The guests met at the home of Mrs. D. Goforth and went to Mrs. Ligon's new home in the Parton Apartment on Carpenter street where they presented the honoree a shower of useful and attractive gifts for her home.

Bingo was played and later in the evening tempting refreshments consisting of sandwiches, cake candy and tea was served by a group of guests.

Those present included Mesdames P. D. Patrick, Ector Harrill, Daisy Osmont, O. C. O'Farrell, Ben F. Beam, P. C. Elam, H. R. Parton, Timmons Hord, D. Goforth; Miss Muzette Jenkins, Mrs. Ligon and two daughters.

STEAK FRY AT LAKE

Members of the Young Men's Club entertained a number of their lady friends at a steak-ry and party at Lake Montonia last Friday evening as a special compliment to a number who were at home from college for the spring holidays.

Invited guests and members of the club present included Misses Frances Goforth, Elizabeth Harris, Irene Campbell, Eva Mae Suber, Helen Stewart, Mary Sue McGinnis, Nina Jackson and Margaret Cornwell; Bruce McDaniel, Billy Weir, Otto Williams, Elmo Bridges, Fred Finger, Earl McGill, Humes Houston, Bill Logan, Wilson Crawford, Martin L. Harmon, Hubert Aderholdt, Bill White, James Anthony, Thornton Harrill and L. M. Logan, all of Kings Mountain; Miss Edith Pitts, of Gastonia, Misses Jeanette Walker, Beatrice Payne and Lillian Little of Bessemer City.

The young people were entertained at the Bridges and Fulton cottages.

SHOWER GIVEN FOR MISS EDELL WILLIFORD

Palm Harbor, March 14.—Mrs. Moffatt Ware and Mrs. E. L. Campbell entertained a large group of friends at the home of the latter, Friday night with a miscellaneous shower honoring Miss Edell Williford, who will be married in June to William S. Hogue.

Multi-hued flowers were used to decorate the party rooms. Games appropriate to St. Patrick and a bride-to-be were played. Mrs. John Lang and Mrs. George Patterson were awarded prizes.

Mrs. Willford Twyman read a clever poem to the honor guest. Each one present wrote an amusing paragraph of advice. As Mrs. Ware read "That Old Sweetheart of Mine," Mrs. Gregor Ulmer, Mrs. Theron Stansell, Mrs. Esten Ulmer, Miss Pauline Neisler and Miss Williford represented the sweethearts. Miss Williford who appeared last, was presented with the basket of gifts. Delicious refreshments, carrying out the color scheme of green and white were served by the hostesses, assisted by Mrs. John Lang, Mrs. C. E. Neisler and Mrs. Emer W. Doud.—St. Petersburg Independent.

I GROW CHOICE TOBACCO

IT'S A FACT THAT CAMEL USES COSTLIER TOBACCOS. LAST YEAR I HAD A DANDY CROP AND THE CAMEL PEOPLE BOUGHT ALL MY CHOICE LOTS. MOST PLANTERS SOLD THEIR HIGH GRADES OF TOBACCO TO CAMELS, THE SAME AS I DID. SO YOU CAN SEE WHY CAMEL IS MY CIGARETTE

MR. SMITHER gives the opinion of a great number of tobacco planters when he reports: "For their own smoking—the majority of tobacco growers prefer Camels." Men who know tobacco from the ground up prefer Camels. They want to enjoy the special treat of smoking Camel's finer, MORE EXPENSIVE TOBACCOS—Turkish and Domestic.

"We smoke Camels because we know tobacco"
