of the public purse.
2.—That prosperity is simply a condition that can exist only when the normal channels of employment and public happiness are cleared of such objectionable obstructions as regimentation, regulation and burdensome taxation.

3.—That the 1933-36 "prosperity" was a false and temporary economic condition that did not create public happiness for those temporarily benefited nor those who are being taxed to pay for it.

In brief, almost everybody is hoping for a return to the clear-thinking days of 1933 B. S. (before spending.)

Samples of the new trend can be gleaned from many a speech made in the House and Senate debate these days. Here are examples: Rep. Hatton Summers of Texas; "The legislative branch of the government is coming to a full realization of its constitutional responsibility in this government. It had to happen." .... Rep. John O'Connor, chairman of the powerful Rules Committee: "Priming the pump won't do any good if there's no water in the well. We should first see that there's water in there by restoring confidence to our people. Let's proclaim a national holiday to be known as "Stop Calling Names Day."

....
And one of the Capitol wags, discussing pump-priming, suggests: "Maybe we'd better create a new office of government and call it the office of the Prime Minister."

....
Skill on the question of spending, the Treasury Department has just announced that the current government's expenses since March 4, 1933

have totaled $36,884,000,000. For the benefit of those who relish statistics this means that $36 has been spent for every minute since the birth of Christ, nearly 2000 years ago; that the government could have paved a cross country highway 238 feet wide with the dollar bills spent, and that all that money had been placed end to end in dollar bills it would have reached 1,142 times from coast to coast.

That is how much $36,884,000,000 is.

The little business men are in the Washington news again. Now, it seems, the government wants to give the "little men of industry" a "better education" — at a cost of $3,000,000 per year. The plan — not taken seriously yet — is to inaugurate courses in business administration for small business men. The courses would be conducted by the Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce in cooperation with several universities.

More About Byron Keeter

In their cozy home on Gold Street. Mr. Keeter is a merchant, business man, and salesman of unusual charm and ability. His policy of an honest value to every customer has won for him many friends throughout his wide acquaintances.

For recreation, Mr. Keeter chooses golf and fishing, with emphasis on golf.

Keeter's Department Store, which was founded some forty-odd years ago by Mr. D. J. Keeter, is located in the heart of Kings Mountain's business section. It has a double entrance front on Railroad Avenue, covering a space 50 feet by 100 feet, and has meant much to the development of Kings Mountain as a shopping center. A complete line of clothing, shoes and accessories for every member of the family will be found in the large and varied stock at Keeter's. Quality merchandise is handled in every department of the big thriving store, at prices that are most reasonable. The personnel of Keeter's is always alert and courteous to the many customer who make Keeter's Department Store their shopping center.
