MARRIAGE ANNOUNCEMENT

Announcement has been made by Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Sullivan of High Shoals of the marriage of their daughter, Mildred Leone, to Mr. Jake Willard Early of Kings Mountain and Charlotte. The bride is pleasantly remembered in Kings Mountain where she lived during her high school days when her father held a position with the Dilling Mills Co.

The marriage took place February 19, in Newton, where the Sullivan family moved after leaving Kings Mountain. Mr. Early is prominent in baseball circles and is now with the Charlotte Hornets.

GRADUATES AT SANATORIUM

The following intations have been received in Kings Mountain: "The Trustees and Staff, Baker Sanatorium Training School, Lumberton, N. C." Miss Cora Lee Falls, a former Kings Mountain girl is one of the fourteen graduates and is pleasantly remembered here where she spent her childhood and early youth. Miss Falls moved with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Falls, to Lumberton a few years ago and after graduating from High School, began training at the Baker Sanatorium, Lumberton.

BRIDE-ELECT HONORED

A lovely miscellaneous shower was given by Miss Marie Whitesides at her home on East King street, honoring Miss Blanche Gault, whose marriage will be a social event of June 11.

Bouquets of mixed spring flowers, including roses, peonies, daisies and larkspur, were arranged throughout the home.

During the evening the guests enjoyed bridal contests. After prizes were awarded, Miss Juanita Hudspeth, presented the bride elect, Miss Gault, with the register book and a huge basket, covered with green crepe paper and containing many lovely gifts.

A delicious cold plate with an iced drink was served with the green and white bridal color motif observed.

Those present included Miss Blanche Gault, the honoree, Miss Whitesides, Mrs. Blanche Poplin, Mrs. Charles Thomason, Mrs. Bob McDaniel, Mrs. J. E. Harmon, Mrs. Bill Osborne, Mrs. M. C. Wingate, Misses Pashia Wright, Kathleen and Ruth Randle, Geneva and Juanita Hudspeth, all of Kings Mountain; Mrs. Major Whitesides and Mrs. W. Y. Abresch of Gastonia.

On Monday evening Mrs. Glenn White entertained a group of friends honoring her husband, Mr. White, on his birthday. The home was beautifully decorated for the occasion with lovely cut flowers. A color note of pink, green and white was observed on the decoration of refreshments. Hearts were played at eight tables for an hour, after which refreshments, consisting of a salad and sweet course was served. Individual cakes, each bearing a large candle emphasized the birthday idea. Following refreshments Mr. H. Lee Weathers of Shelby showed pictures of his western trip.

Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Ladd Hamrick, Mr. and Mrs. P. D. Herndon, Mr. and Mrs. Byron Keeter, Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Bridges, Mr. and Mrs. Doris Littlejohn, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. McClain, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. South, Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Willis, Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Hord, Mr. and Mrs. Glee A. Bridges, and Mr. Vernon Crosby, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Collier of Grover, Mr. and Mrs. Earle Hamrick, Mr. and Mrs. John Ed Queen, and H. L. Weathers of Shelby.

ENTERTAIN FOR HUSBAND

Miss Grady Patterson was hostess to members of the Study Club entertaining at her home on Gold street on Tuesday afternoon.

An artistic arrangement of beautiful flowers made the rooms most inviting.

Mrs. J. M. Rhea had charge of an interesting program on North Carolina Estates and Gardens. A well prepared paper on the subject was read by Mrs. Ladd Hamrick and one of Edgar Guest's poems was given by Mrs. W. T. Weir. After a piano number by Mrs. N. F. McGill, current events were given.

A delicious salad course with accessories and a sweet course was served.

Mrs. M. M. Almond and children of Charlotte are spending a few days with her sister, Mrs. Eugene Matthews.

AUXILIARY BIRTHDAY

The Executive Committees of Home and Foreign Missions have good reasons to rejoice in these Auxiliary Birthdays. Some of the most fruitful missions had their beginnings in the offerings given by the auxiliaries in recognition of this anniversary.

The 1938 Auxiliary Birthday Offering is to be for women and girls of other races and languages in our own land.

The party Thursday evening is to be a most enjoyable one. There will be music, refreshments, and a very interesting program.
