MISS GERTRUDE KING WEDS

In a ceremony of unusual beauty and charm, the marriage of Miss Gertrude King, of Lancaster and Charlotte, and Mr. Gene Williams of Charlotte, took place Saturday afternoon, May 21, at 5:00 o'clock at the home of the bride's brother, Mr. Grady W. King, on West Mountain street, Kings Mountain. Rev. E. W. Fox, pastor of Central Methodist Church officiated, using the impressive ring ceremony.

The vows were spoken in the sun room, which was banked with evergreens and ferns, against which were posed baskets of white hydrangeas, white larkspur and sprays of fern. Tall white floor candelabra holding cathedral tapers and white floor baskets filled with lovely white flowers, arranged on either side of the wide doorway completed the beautiful setting.

Mrs. N. F. McGill, pianist, and Mrs. M. H. Biser, soloist, furnished a program of music. Prior to the ceremony, Mrs. McGill played Schubert's Serenade and Liebestraum by Liszt and during the rendition of these numbers, the candies were lighted. Bows of white gynophila, by Mrs. Grady King. Mrs. Biser sang the Sweetest Story Ever Told, and, I Love You Truly. Mendelssohn's Wedding March was played as a processional and during the ceremony, Traumerie was softly played.

Mrs. McGill was gowned in blue lace with shoulder bouquet of tallisman roses and Mrs. Biser wore flowered chiffon with bouquet of yellow roses.

The couple were unattended. The bride wore a becoming ensemble of ribbed navy chiffon, with short bolero jacket, white accessories and a close fitting navy hat, with trimmings. Her shoulder bouquet was of gardenias and valley lilies.

Immediately after the ceremony an informal reception was held.

The decorations in the living room were bowls of sweet peas and larkspur in delicate pastel shades.

In the dining room the table, spread with an exquisite lace cloth, was centered with a bowl of white roses, carnations, snapdragons and fern. Tall white candles in silver holders, completed the table appointment.

larkspur and roses were arranged on buffet and elsewhere, with the white and green bridal motif observed throughout.

Mrs. Joe Thomson, wearing flowered chiffon and Mrs. J. C. Nickels in black chiffon assisted by Miss Betty King, of Concord, niece of the bride, and Miss Nancy Nickels, served ice cream, with green wedding bells molded in center, individual cakes, decorated with tiny valley lilies, white and green mints.

Mrs. Grady King, who with Mr. King received the guests in the living room, wore a lovely gown of black net combined with white lace, with shoulder spray of white rose buds and valley lilies.

The bride's mother was gowned in aqua marine crepe with shoulder corsage of pink roses and valley lilies. The bridegroom's mother wore blue crepe and also wore a corsage of pink roses and valley lilies.

The register was kept by Mr. Boyce King, of Lancaster, S. C., brother of the bride and Miss Lenora Gladden, of Fort Lawn, S. C. Miss Gladden wore a becoming gown of fuchsia taffeta with shoulder spray of tallisman roses.

The bride is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Thomas King of Lancaster, S. C., formerly of Kings Mountain and has made her home in Charlotte for a number of years. She is a charming and attractive young woman with a large number of friends.

Mr. Williams is a son of Judge and Mrs. Wade H. Williams, of Charlotte, and has been connected with the Mack Truck Company for several years and is popular among his business associates and friends.

After a short wedding trip, the couple will be at home in Charlotte. The guests included the parents, relatives and close friends of the couple.

TO THE VOTERS OF CLEVELAND COUNTY:

I would greatly appreciate your support in my candidacy for the State Senate in the Primary June 4th.

I will not be permitted to call on you personally as I am compelled to complete my studies in preparation for the North Carolina Bar Examination this summer.

I was born and reared in Cleveland County. I am 26 years of age, and I am trying to equip myself so as to be able to repay my County and State for the opportunities that have been given to me. The only debt I never expect to be able to pay is the debt I owe Cleveland County and the State of North Carolina.

I am not tied up with any other candidate in the Primary. It is my feeling that every candidate should stand on his own merit—and may the best man win. Neither am I running on the record of my cousins, uncles, grandfather or father, although I am proud of their record. If I am not worthy in my own right, I have no right to expect your support.

If you see fit to honor me with your support, I will be profoundly thankful and shall strive to be worthy of your confidence and do my utmost to faithfully discharge the duties of the office of State Senator in the North Carolina General Assembly.

Faithfully yours,
RALPH WEBB GARDNER.

P. S.—I want to publicly express my deep personal appreciation to my former teachers and school mates for their splendid endorsement and to assure them that I shall strive to the utmost to justify their faith and confidence.
