CARD OF THANKS

We desire to return our most appreciative thanks to the many friends and neighbors for their kindness and sympathy shown us during the sickness and death of our loving daughter, Helen. May God's richest blessings rest and abide with them all.

G. B. Howard and family.

Facts . . .

Heigh Ho! School's out, so we guess most of you have caught up with some long lost sleep. Since we probably won't be able to keep tap on everyone this summer we had better give you a few facts about some people's fun.

Wonder if Betty's blistered should she wear a bandage the other night. How about it, Ladd?

Our old friend, Wilbur Jones, has learned the way of the world since he left us last fall. Anyway, Pat, says he isn't at all backward.

We wonder which Fay's favorite color is: red or black. Tuesday night it definitely must have been black. "Weep, weep!" (from Colleen's corner) You see, "Eppie" should be at Waccamaw by now.

Wouldn't let your big brother beat your time, would you, Jones? Still, we guess Hazel likes you best, aster all.

So Helen Faye got mad when the boy friend (?—but re doesn't know it passed without seeing her Sunday. Well, well,—Gogie was right glad to see him. Why? Folks it was Bill!

Is Clemmensee's arm better, P. K.? Hmm, you should know!

Jim Ratterree and his girl had a chaperone Monday night. Paul, did she stand you up, or was the date at 10?

As a passing thought—does Peggy's heart still break all speed records when Ladd's around and by the way, does anyone know who Eoline Keeter's current flame is? If so, you might let us know about it—as well as any other news you might know.

And I, Julia, might say—Jim is leaving us for Appalachian next week. Good luck, partner!
