BELL-EINHART WEDDING

A wedding characterized by beauty and charming simplicity was solemnized Saturday evening, May 21, at 7:30 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Monroe J. Bell, of Kings Mountain, when Miss Portia Louise Bell, of Kings Mountain and Charlotte became the bride of George Einhart of Charlotte.

G. Sargeant, pastor of the bride, performed the ceremony. The vows were spoken before an improvised altar in the living room, with the white and green bridal motif emphasized throughout. Graceful ferns were twined on a trellis and interspersed with white flowers. Cathedral tapers on white candelabra furnished a soft light.

There were no attendants, the couple entering the ceremony room together.

The bride wore a simple dress of white silk combined with white lace and fashioned in slenderizing, princess lines. She carried a lovely arm bouquet of pink rosebuds.

The bride is the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Bell. She attended high school in Charlotte and Kings Mountain and later attended Appalachian State Teachers College at Boone. She is a talented artist, a young woman of charm and is admired by a wide circle of friends.

The groom is a son of Mrs. Nora Einhart, of Clyde, Ohio. He is also a talented young artist. He is now employed as director of sales for the Chicago Sign Sales Corporation, with offices in Charlotte. The young couple are now at home in Charlotte.

ENTERTAINS AT HOUSE PARTY

W. K. Mauney, Jr., who was a member of the graduating class of Lenoir-Rhyne College entertained the members of his fraternity, the Gamma Beta Chi, National Social Fraternity, of Lenoir-Rhyne College, at a week-end house party at his cabin at Lake Montonia.

The young men arrived Friday afternoon and were entertained during their stay with swimming, horse-back riding, boat riding, mountain climbing, fishing, etc.

On Saturday evening the Alumni members were dinner guests of D. R. Mauney, Jr., in Cherryville.

Prof. Patterson, faculty advisor to the fraternity, who is in charge of Lenoir-Rhyne Summer School, joined the party Saturday night and was a guest at the cabin for the remainder of the week-end. The entire party had lunch at Mountain View Hotel Sunday.

The Alumni members present were Prof. Patterson and Harry Vander Linden of Hickory; D. R. Mauney, Jr., of Cherryville, Frank Efford of Kannapolis, Franklin Casper of Mt. Pleasant, N. C., Woodward Hunt of Fairmont, N. C., Hubert Aderholdt and W. K. Mauney, Jr., of Kings Mountain; other fraternity members at the house party were Charles Morrison, Tom Foad, John Phillips, Richard Yoder and Richard Patterson, all of Hickory; Tom Trott of Kannapolis and Marvin Cooke of Salisbury.

CELEBRATE BIRTHDAY ANNIVERSARY

The children and grandchildren of Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Mauney met at the Aubrey Mauney cottage at Lake Montonia, for a family reunion, Sunday. The affair was planned especially to honor Mrs. Mauney on her birthday anniversary.

A beautiful dinner was served and a beautiful birthday cake graced the table.

Those enjoying the festivities were Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Mauney, Miss Martha Lou Mauney, Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Mauney and children, Peggy Anne and Jean, Mr. and Mrs. B. N. Barnes, all of Kings Mountain; Mr. and Mrs. Herman Wolfe, Betty, Anna and Nita Wolfe, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Lohr, and Lawrence Lohr, Jr., all of Charlotte; Dr. Jacob Mauney of Biltmore.

BOOK CLUB MEETS

Mrs. D. C. Mauney was hostess to members of the Thursday Afternoon Book Club and a large number of invited guests, entertaining at her home on Ridge street on last Thursday afternoon.

The rooms were arranged with bowls of colorful flowers.

Mrs. Arthur Hay had charge of the following program featuring readings and music by a number of young people: Readings by Margaret Williams and Betty Hord; pupils of Miss Mary Frances Hord; piano solo Miles Mauney; reading - Patterns - by Miss Elizabeth Plonk; piano solo, Ernest Mauney; Prof. Quizz, impersonation by Mrs. R. S. Plonk, Jr., of Bessemer City; several short humorous readings by Mrs. W. K. Mauney. A tempting salad course and a sweet course was served.

RECEPTION AT FORTUNE HOME

Immediately following the wedding ceremony of Miss Grace Fortune and Mrs. Harvey Dullin on last Thursday evening, an informal reception was given at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Fortune on Gold street.

The lower floor was thrown en suite and made most inviting with a profusion of summer flowers.

The dining room was in green and white carrying out the bridal motif. The table was laid with a handsome lace cloth and centered with a bowl of white lilies, and delphinium with cathedral tapers at each end.

Presiding in the dining room were Mrs. Helen Neal, Mrs. Harold Crawford, Miss Ozell Kiser and Miss Octavia Crawford served bridal ices and cake.

Mrs. Jacob Cooper presided at the register.

PLAYGROUND WORK TO BE STARTED

The Junior Woman's Club members say: "Get out your overalls and rakes, gentlemen and ladies", for there's to be a Field Day for gardeners next week on Friday, June 17, from 4:30 p. m. 'til dark. The property which Mrs. M. M. Carpenter has so graciously permitted the Junior Woman's Club to use as a playground is to be entirely cleaned up, and made attractive by the planting of flowers and shrubbery. The Juniors ask the help of the citizens of the town in this undertaking, which should be of interest to the entire community.

Mrs. Robert Miller, chairman of this project, is especially seeking the assistance of the American Legion, Town Council, Fire Department, American Legion Auxiliary, and Senior Woman's Club. There will be a tub of lemonade, too, to cool the parched and dusty throats of the workers.

The program of the Junior Club, which preceded the business session Monday night, was in charge of the International Relations Committee. Rev. L. Boyl Hamm made a most instructive and interesting talk on the subject of "Peace." He stressed the importance of a Christian peace and brotherhood, by graphically picturing the horrors and destruction of war.

The hostesses were Mrs. Charles Oates, Jr., Miss Sara Ramseur and Mrs. Gene Matthews.
