

THIS 'N THAT

By Alice Burtou

Patterson Grove Section

The Patterson Grove school closed last Friday, so the boys and girl will not have to go to school any more until November. This school has a summer session and then closes for about six weeks to give the children an opportunity to help gather the farm crops.

Beth-Ware school closed too, so the high school students from this community will have a vacation (if you can call it one) too.

And speaking of school, Central High School has one new student from this community who thinks its pretty grand, namely, Flay Carl. He says in part, "I like it over there, we have a good time, and there's lots of books to read." The eighth grade isn't so bad either. We don't have many books but we have two English books. (Will Miss Hallam, please take notice!) Flay likes English just about as well as most kids like spinach!

Vacation time is over for us farming folks, for its cotton picking time in Dixie. All the folks in this section have been busy for about two weeks. Those who haven't been picking cotton have had hay to mow and stack peas to pick, etc.

Friends of Mrs. Annie Martin who once lived in this community, will be glad to hear that she is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Howard Goforth, and Mr. Goforth, this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Thornburg and family recently moved from this community. They are to be missed.

Several from this section are planning to attend the Cooking School "Star in My Kitchen" to be shown at the Dixie Theatre this week.

The subject for the Sunday night open discussion is "Prayer", Matthew 6:5-15. The following questions will be presented:
1. What Scriptural foundation do you have for the belief that God hears and answers prayer?
2. What value did Jesus put upon prayer?
3. Why pray when God already knows what we need?
4. What are the proper motives of prayer?
5. Suggest some hinderances to prayer.
6. What place should public prayer have in our churches?
7. Does our standard of Christian living depend upon our praying or our praying upon our living?
8. Why the modern neglect of private prayer?
9. What are some of the fruits of a consistent prayer life?

The ROUND-UP

By "George"

Nosing around the Herald Office I find that Julia and I have some new competition. And, in our humble estimation, we really have some worthwhile competition. The name of the new column is "This'nThat," and its written by a young lady from out in the rural districts. This brings the total number of columns in the Herald to four—nice work! But now getting down to the old stuff:
Pat seems to be really serious at last or so Ladd would have us believe And, strangely enough, we believe it....!
Fred Wright should be glad that Bill Davis isn't around any more ... He certainly is profiting by Bill's absence! And Bill has the answer to that song he used to sing in the Quartet!
Had a card from Phyllis Tuesday, and she says that she's having
