

MOUNTAINEERS INVADE NEWTON FRIDAY NIGHT

CROWELL LITTLE MAKES DEBUT AS COACH

LITTLE

By Whittington

The Mountaineers march against Newton Friday night for their opening tilt in the Western Conference. This will be the most important game of the year for the local squad with the exception of the Shelby tilt.

the Mountaineers will probably outweigh the Newton gristsmen, but will have a tough battle despite their superior size. When speaking of K. M.'s chances Coach Crowell Little said: "We should and will take the game if the boys will forget that it is Newton we're playing. You know Kings Mountain hasn't scored on Newton in several years—so we've got to break the jinx."

Monday the locals scrimmaged with Bolling Springs Junior College and showed much improvement in both offensive and defensive tactics. Although the boys failed to break thru the heavier line for more than a couple firsts, Coach Little seemed well pleased with the results.

Friday's game also is significant because of the fact that it is Coach Little's debut as a coach. Mr. Little who graduated from the University of North Carolina last year, was All-Southern quarter-back last season.

RAMBLIN' In SPORT

Friday afternoon at approximately 5:00 o'clock the Mountaineers embarked on a journey which will end at the camp of their most formidable grid foe. They leave home with a wonderful chance to win the game and break a three year jinx. They have the advantage of superior weight; they have a system which has been proven; but what will their homeward journey be? Will the boys be happy with the joy of victory, or will they once again return with a woeful tale of defeat. We like to think that they will be in the former mood.

However, they'll be up against odds which weight can't lick. Those odds are six little letters—NEWTON. If they're licked it won't be by weight or brains. It'll be because Newton and not Bessemer City they're playing. Put Newton in E. C. uniforms, put them over them. But they'll be wearing Newton's uniform and representing Newton; and therein lies their only chance of defeat.

Heartly thanks to Martin Harmon from both the Herald and your correspondent for the picture of Crowell Little. Harmon, who is now on the Daily Tarheel, U. N. C. paper, used to tap out "Sportin with Harmon" on the Herald, wayback in August, if you remember that far back.

How do you like the way that Clemson team handled Tulane last week? That teams going places and we wouldn't be surprised if they came out at the head of the conference, seeing as how they don't have to pay Carolina or Duke And while we're on the subject, we think that Duke is being over-rated As is Carolina's "Sweet" Lalanna despite what we said a few weeks back.....!

The ROUND-UP

By "George"

Good news! This is positively the last "Round-Up". No continuing for love, money, or flattery. We're giving way to a newcomer, written by anonymous persons. (And let me say now that we have nothing to do with the column. So if you have any thing to say about it don't say it to me.) This new column is gonna be Julia. Julia seems to be getting rather domestic and possessive. Last Friday night she slung possessive adjectives around as if they were mere words. Everything's ours. (Good-by, Julia, and keep us the good work)

They tell me that this Tindall-Clara Plonk romance has broken out in new spender. Is it true, Clara?

Had letters from P. K. and Gin both this week, and they're both doing fine. However, Gin seems slightly upset by war news. We wonder why....?

For once I can't think of anything to say. Maybe it's because we are getting out of the gossip and this is our last roundup (That one slipped on me I mean about the last round-up) so we'll say a quiet (?) good-by and get going.

P. S.—Don't forget to look out for "Critical Moments and Howlous Scoops" Mr. Lynch tells me that that's the name of the Round-Up's successor, but that's all he will tell me. Kute, huh....?

The stuff with a capital "S", and it when you know that your successor can beat you at your own game. So after we sling a little mud we'll say good-by and the Round-Up will go into the melting pot to be converted into nothingness.

There's no better way to end up than by spilling something about

IT TAKES A STAR TO PLAY THE LEAD in the Motion Picture Cooking School!

The story of "Star in My Kitchen" wouldn't ring true if flour of uncertain quality were used in the baking scenes. It takes a flour like Pillsbury's Best to assure the fine baking results that give point to the story.

And in your own kitchen, it's just as important to use fine flour if you want your baking to turn out perfectly every time.

Pillsbury's Best gives superior results because the wheats that go into it are tested and blended with scientific precision — and because its quality never varies.

Why take chances when Pillsbury's Best Flour costs so little more per recipe? Ask your grocer for Pillsbury's Best!
