KING-DAVIS MARRIAGE SOLEMNIZED

The marriage of Miss Sadie Mabel Davis of Wadesboro and Walter Coyte Kings of Lancaster, S. C., was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Davis, in Wadesboro, at four o'clock, Sunday afternoon, October 30. The vows were spoken before Reverend Paul Hardin, Jr., pastor of the Methodist Church.

Only the immediate families and a few close friends of the couple witnessed the ceremony.

An improvised altar of trailing evergreens and white chrysanthemums, decorated with cathedral tapers, was arranged in the living room.

A program of nuptial music was rendered by Mrs. W. H. Gullidge, pianist, Mrs. Paul Hardin, Jr., and Mr. Tom Little, vocalists, all of Wadesboro.

Prior to the ceremony as Mrs. Gullidge played Traumerel by Schumann, Mr. Pines Davis, brother of the bride, and Mr. William Rowman of Jersey City, N. J., lighted the tapers and took their places beside the altar.

"The Sweetest Story Ever Told," was sung as a duet by Mrs. Hardin and Mr. Little.

To the strains of the Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin, the bride and bridegroom entered together and stood beneath a bridal arch of white twined with ivy and flanked with floor baskets of snowy chrysanthemums.

The bride was becomingly attired in a dress of teal blue with coat and accessories of burgundy wine. Her corsage was gardenias and valley lilies.

As the vows were being spoken, "I Love You Truly," by Carrie Jacobs Bond, was played softly. At the conclusion, the couple knelt, while Mr. Little sang "The Prayer Perfect" by Ermine J. Stenson, as a benediction.

Mr. and Mrs. King left immediately after the ceremony for a motor trip through Virginia. Upon their return, they will make their home in LANCASTER, S. C.

Mrs. King, the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Davis of Wadesboro, is a young woman of charm and pleasing personality.

Mr. King, the son of Mr. and Mrs. G. T. King of Lancaster, S. C., has many friends in Kings Mountain, where he spent his childhood and early boyhood days.
