Mrs. Lula Woodworth, leader, had charge of the business session. 13 members answered roll call.

At the close of the program, the hostesses assisted by Mrs. George Moss served a salad course with Russian tea.

SMITH-ALLEN WEDDING SOLEMNIZED

The marriage of Miss Mary Ethel Allen and Mr. Spurgeon L. Smith, Jr., was solemnized at the home of the bride on Wednesday afternoon, in a ceremony characterized by beauty and charming simplicity.

An improvised altar was arranged in the living room with a background of ferns and floor baskets filled with cut flowers. White candles were arranged in floor candelabra about the altar and on the stairway which the bridal party entered.

The wedding music was furnished by Mrs. Gerald Lackey of Cherryville, pianist, and Mrs. Harold Crawford of Kings Mountain, soloist. During the rendition of Melody of Love, George Allen, Jr., brother of the bride, lighted the candles.

Mrs. Crawford sang "O Promise Me" and "I Love You Truly."

The Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin was played for the procession and Mendelssohn's Wedding March for the recessional. Mrs. Lackey was gowned in royal blue chiffon velvet and Mrs. Crawford wore dark blue with navy accessories.

Miss Irene Allen, sister of the bride was maid of honor and the only attendant. She wore a becoming dress of chartreuse crepe with Japanese accessories with shoulder carriage of pink roses.

The bride and bridegroom entered the ceremony room together and were met at the altar by the brides' pastor, Rev. A. G. Sargeant, who officiated during the impressive ring ceremony.

The bride wore a dress of sapphire crepe with navy hat and other accessories of navy. Her corsage was of pink roses.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. George Allen and the late Mrs. Allen. She is a young woman of charm and pleasing personality. She has a wide circle of friends, here and elsewhere.

The couple left immediately after the ceremony for a wedding trip after which they will be at home in Garland, N. C.

Among out-of-town people here for the wedding were Mr. Marshall Moore, Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Moore, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Moore, and Mrs. Beesie Moore all of Shelby; Mr. and Mrs. Colman Carter and Mr. S. L. Smith, Sr. of Garland.

ST. LYDIA CIRCLE HOLDS MEETING

Miss Melva Settlemyre was hostess to the St. Lydia circle of the Woman's Missionary Society of Central Methodist Church on Thursday evening.

Miss Ruth Moss, the circle leader was in charge. After an inspiring devotional period, business was taken up.

The circle voted to adopt a small girl at the Children's Home in Winston-Salem for their "little girl" and enthusiastically made plans for carrying out this project.

Plans were made for a benefit candy pull to be held in the recreation room of the church on next Friday evening. This is expected to provide plenty of wholesome fun and the net cent admission fee will be used to carry on charity work of the circle.

At the close of the meeting Miss Settlemyre assisted by her mother and Miss Rachael McClain, served most tempting tea and sandwiches.

WOMAN'S CLUB ELECTS OFFICERS FOR NEW YEAR

The Senior Women's Club held its regular meeting in the lounge room of the club last Friday afternoon. With the exception of a president, officers were elected as follows.

First Vice President, Mrs. C. E. Neider; Second Vice President, Mrs. H. N. Moss; recording secretary, Mrs. W. K. Mauney; corresponding secretary, Mrs. D. C. Mauney; treasurer, Mrs. Grady Patterson; Captain, Mrs. H. T. Fulton; publicity chairman, Mrs. E. W. Griffin; Sponsor for Junior Club, Mrs. M. A. Ware.

A president was elected but on account of indecision of acceptance, an announcement of name to fill this office will be made at a later date.

An interesting program on the work of the North Carolina Federation was presented with Mrs. Grady Patterson, Mrs. E. W. Griffin and Mrs. Jim Willis taking part.

Mrs. Ted Gumble, representing the Junior Club most graciously stated that the Juniors wished to make a gift to the Senior Club and asked for suggestions as to a suitable gift. Mrs. H. N. Moss was appointed to serve with the Juniors to further study of the matter and report at next meeting. The Senior Club expressed gratification for the generous offer of the Juniors. After an enthusiastic vote of thanks to the outgoing president, Mrs. Grady Patterson for her excellent service to the organization, during her term of office, the meeting adjourned.
