Every Farm Family To Get Publication

Each person on the farm needs three bushels of wheat, two bushels of corn, 1.8 bushels of Irish potatoes, two bushels of sweet potatoes, 85 pounds of pork and lard, 30 dozen eggs, four gallons of sorghum and quantities of about 15 other foods to maintain health throughout a year.

This information is contained in a new publication prepared by E. W. Gaither, analyst of the State College Extension Service, and now being distributed to every farm family in North Carolina. It is designed to aid the farm family in planning its food and feed requirements, and crop rotations.

Dr. I. O. Schaub, director of the Extension Service, is having the pamphlet distributed through the county farm and home agents, but he announced that copies are also available upon request to the Agricultural Editor at State College, Raleigh, for Extension Circular No. 235.

Facing Farm Facts.
In addition to tables listing the food requirements for one person, there are tables showing how much feed is required for one hen, one dairy cow, one beef animal, one hog, one sheep and one horse or mule. The circular also contains a garden calendar, showing what, when and how to plant dozens of vegetables adapted to this section, and a crop rotation table which lists the general crops, and other crops which follow best to conserve and enrich the soil.

Dr. Schaub said "It is not possible to predict definitely in advance what price farm products will bring. Those depending upon money received from the sale of farm products with which to purchase food for the family and feed for the livestock of ten find themselves without the necessary funds. The farmer who produces his living largely from the farm and who conserves the fertility of the soil usually lives well every year and in the end has more cash as a result of his labors."

Because of the larger hatch expected this year, market supplies of chickens in the last half of 1939 will probably be above those of a year earlier.

During the past crop year, the Agricultural Adjustment Administration program was applied to 282,629 acres, or almost 65 per cent of the total crop land of the United States.

A new plan of distributing food to relief families by issuing them stamps good for commodities in grocery stores will be tried as an experiment in a limited number of cities.

The Federal Surplus Commodities State College's annual Farm and Home Week to be held July 31 - August 4, will feature more farmers and farm women on the program, announces John W. Goodman, assistant extension director.

Mr. O. W. Myers and Mr. Aubrey McIney visited the troop at this time.

Mr. G. A. Bridges, who has served as Scoutmaster of the troop since its organization, retired at this meeting. The troop has made excellent progress under his leadership, and the entire membership was reluctant to give him up. We are all glad he will continue to be assistant leader, however.

New officers will be elected at the next meeting.

Farm Questions

Q.—Should any treatment be given sweet potato plants before transplanting?

A.—Where soils are infected with stem rot or wilt organism, the stem and roots of the plants should be dipped in a 20-20-50 Bordeaux mixture or dusted with a mixture composed of 25 percent anhydrous copper sulphate and 75 percent lime just before planting. The scurf in infected roots and stems should have a thorough coating of sulphur immediately before transplanting. All treated plants should be set in moist but not water logged soil.

Q.—How can I prevent lice and mites from infesting my poultry flock?

A.—The most effective prevention is to thoroughly clean and disinfect the poultry house. Crude petroleum, commercial carbolineum, coal tar stock dips, and a combination of equal parts of spent motor oil and kerosene are good for this work. Treatments for control of the different kinds of mites are given in Extension Circular No. 160; Common Parasites of Poultry, and copies may be obtained free by writing the Agricultural Editor at State College.

Corporation has been authorized to make additional purchases, not to exceed 315,000 barrels of whole wheat flour and up to 150,000 barrels of whole wheat break fast cereal, for relief distribution.
