THIS 'N THAT
 By Alice Burton
Patterson Grove Section
 Once upon a time (as most stories begin) I wrote that I was surprised to hear that a certain young man of this section had fallen for a girl. You see, we thought he was the kind that didn't care for girls. Their romance was referred to in this column again but no names were mentioned. Now the story has reached the climax—"And so they were married"—We hope it will have the perfect ending of—"And lived happily ever after." I can't keep you guessing any longer so read a little further and you'll find their names.
 Of interest to their many friends is the announcement of the marriage of Miss Ruthie Lee Patterson and J. C. Carroll, which took place March 19, 1939, at Gaffney, S. C.

MICKEY AND HIS MA
 MY DAD GAVE MY MA SOME SWEET SPOONS FOR MOTHER'S DAY!
 YES!
 THAT AIN'T NOthin'—MY POP GAVE MY MOM SOME TOWELS WITH PULLMAN ON 'EM!
 THEY IS GENUINE SILVER WITH HER INITIALS ON 'EM!
MY MA SEZ:
 Mothers owe it to their families their friends and themselves to retain their charm, youthful appearance and good health. Drinking Sunrise Milk will help. There's health and a beauty treatment in every bottle.

their baby boy. Miss Ellen Foster, Mrs. Seism's sister, has been spending several days with them.
 Miss Frances Thornburg spent last week-end visiting relatives in Charlotte.
 Friends of Miss Magdalene Greene will be sorry to hear that she has been very sick with measles.
