Relatives of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Thornburg surprised them with a birthday dinner given at their home Sunday. The event was in honor of Mrs. Thornburg's birthday.

Friends of Mrs. Ralph Allen, who has been seriously ill in a Charlotte hospital, will be glad to hear that she is improving. Mrs. Allen was before marriage Miss Thelma Seism. Mr. Marion Brown is a patient in a Charlotte hospital where he underwent an operation this week.

Mr. and Mrs. La Bon Thornburg and son, Danny, of Shelby were visitors of Relatives here Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Huffman of Cherryville were visitors in this section Sunday afternoon.

Miss Vera Thornburg of Charlotte spent the week-end at her home here

BETWEEN THE EXCLAMATION POINTS

It's cotton chopping time and in almost every field folks can be seen at work. There has been some com-

But we haven't heard anyone report a lack of grass. The wheat is beginning to change its color so it won't be long now 'til the reapers will be at work. The birds must enjoy this season. They're in the cherry trees from dawn 'til night. Some pay for their fruit with a song but the saucy old blue jay is always cross and scolding. That hill side covered with white and yellow daisies would be a lovely spot to make pictures if you had a color-camera.

The creek, bank and fence covered with honey suckle and pink rambler roses would be even better! I hear a car going down the (Waco) road rattling like a milk wagon. But no wonder! There's places in that road that—to use my own words—resembles a wash board! Now I'm not trying to "throw off" on a wash board—it's supposed to be one bump after another but a road isn't. Still folks grumble and blame their cars because they make so much noise. Listen folks, if you were shaken till all your joints were loose (that's what happens to your car) I'll bet you would shriek and groan too! Ho-Hum—I'm getting as tired of this as you are—So Good By!

Notice of Summons by Publication CLEVELAND COUNTY, NORTH CAROLINA. Mrs. Sara Little Hayes, Plaintiff Petitioner, vs. Maurice Little, Jr., a minor, Defendant.

The above named defendant will take notice that an action, entitled as above, has been instituted in the Superior Court of Cleveland County, North Carolina, to sell a certain lot located in the Town of Kings Mountain, in said County, for partition, and in said action it is alleged that the above named plaintiff and defendant are the only children and heirs at law of M. J. Little, deceased and that they are seized, possessed and own said lot of land as tenants in common, each being entitled to a one-half undivided interest therein; that said lot cannot be actually divided to their advantage and it is for the best interests to the owners to sell same and divide the proceeds, and the said defendant, above named, is hereby required to appear and answer or demur to the petition filed in the office of the Clerk of the Superior Court of Cleveland County on or before the 29th day of May, 1939, or the relief demanded in said petition will be granted.

This 28th day of April, 1939 E. A. Houser, Jr., Clerk of Court.

By George! Peppy Day sale Saturday. That is written up elsewhere, but methinks it's worthy of mention here. Those disabled men at Oteen who have nothing else to do, and refuse to be completely inactive, make the peopies. It's a worthwhile project. Every person in town Saturday should buy one. Girls will be selling them on the street. Those men who made them deserve a helping hand, and it's every American's duty to extend one to them. These men are the one's who get no compensation from the government. They have no other means of earning spending money; in fact, they are physically unable to earn it otherwise. They receive a certain amount of money for each Peppy they make if the Peopies are sold. So, they must be sold, and you must buy.

Messrs Johnny McGill and Donald Blanton, down at the K. M. Drug, take this week's prize for the most attractive window in town. That's not just a boast, because yours truly is in on the matter. It's the plain truth. If you haven't noticed the handsome (or otherwise) faces of the Senior class this year, you're behind the times. The 65 young faces which adorn the window, mounted on the enormous K. M. H. S., will soon be the leading citizens of this town and state. It's worth the time required to look.

TOM AND GEORGE. Tom: "George, do you think that it's a good idea for young people starting out in the world to figure that somewhere there's a good opening for them?" George: "If they do in the end they'll find themselves in the HOLE." We find one of the best ways to keep out of the hole is to follow the Golden Rule, as friends made in that manner are the most lasting. That's our unvolvable motto. D. F. Hord Furniture Co.
