Of INTEREST to WOMEN

PHONES 10-R AND 88 MRS. A. H. PATTERSON, Editor

WILSON-HORD WEDDING

A wedding of interest to a wide circle of friends was that of Miss Nancy Hord of this city to John Phil Wilson of Shelby, solemnized Thursday night at 8:30 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Hord on Mountain street. The large ceremony room was banked with pines, ferns, and magnolias with all floor baskets filled with tinted blue and pink Queen Anne's lace in delicate shades. Seven-branched candelabra holding cathedral tapers completed the lovely scene. Rev. A. G. Sergeant, pastor of the First Baptist church and pastor of the bride, officiated at the ceremony.

The flower girls were little Misses Phyllis Ware, niece of the bride, and Merian Allen, of Cherryville, cousin of the bride. They were gowned in floor length pink dresses with pin tucked skirts with satin bows of blue ribbons, their hats were bonnet shaped and made of blue net. They carried miniature baskets filled with rose petals. Master Bud Ware, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Ware, carried the ring in a calla lily. He wore a white mannish linen suit.

The wedding music was rendered by Miss Kate Whitworth of Waco as pianist and Mrs. Howard Houser of Cherryville as soloist. Mrs. Houser wore blue lace and carried an old fashion neseray. Miss Whitworth's dress was of dusty pink tulle, her flowers were a shoulder corsage of white gardenias.

J. D. Hord, brother of the bride, was usher and lighted the candles. The bride and groom entered together. During the ceremony Miss Whitworth played "To a Wild Rose" ecftly.

The bride was strikingly gowned in a creation of forget-me-not blue taffeta with gathered blouse and wide circular skirt. Her hat was a large picture hat of pink straw with rosebuds. She carried an arm bouquet of pink gladioli and delphinium tied with pink satin ribbon.

Mrs. Wilson is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Hord of this city. A young woman of charm and intellectual ability, she is a graduate of Kings Mountain High School and Woman's College of the University of North Carolina. She is a member of Cherryville school faculty.

Mr. Wilson is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Max Wilson of Shelby. He is a graduate of Shelby High School and Sheman-Oah College at Dayton, Va. He holds a position with Sterch-Bros store in Shelby.

Immediately following the ceremony the guests were entertained at an informal reception. Bridal loes and cake were served by Misses Laura Mae Wilson, Holling Springs, Carolyn and Jannie Allen, Cherryville, and Jean Hord, Kings Mountain. Miss Mary Frances Hord presided in the gift room. Miss Ruby Furrage served refreshing punch in the front hall.

The young couple left for a wedding trip and upon their return will be at home in Cherryville.
