

THIS 'N THAT

By Alice Burton

Patterson Grove Section

The calendar stated that summer began last week, but if we haven't been having summer for a month or so I don't know what it was. I don't think it can get much better!

It's the heat or something, anyhow I've been short of ideas for this column lately. I invited a couple of persons to write a column for me last week but—no sale.

Usually folks have a reason for doing things, but we can't think of single sensible reason why some men and boys will work out in the scorching sun without a shirt on and cook themselves an Indian stew (Maybe they call it tan.) If it helps their appearance we could take that for a reason—you know anything for beauty's sake—I can't believe its open comfortable or healthy. At any rate I am not going to try cooling myself like this to find out. And if they want to go that way let their business, so why should I worry!

Every once in a while some one writes a lot of nonsense about the women being partly responsible for the cotton surplus because we don't wear enough cotton. Ye gods! Isn't it bad enough with the ads trying to make it appear as if nobody but girls ever had dingy teeth, bad breath, B. O. and so on, without trying to blame the nation's No. 1 problem on us? I say, Mr. Man, (its usually a man that points out our faults) why not take a little inventory among your own sex. How many men do you know that wear all cotton? Bet you could count them on your fingers! If we've got to wear cotton, why not the men?

If it's true that getting stung by bees will cure rheumatism, G. W. (name in the paper) should never have it, 'cause he got stung plenty while robbing some bees the other day. I haven't any faith in such "cures" but if I had rheumatism I think I'd rather risk it as bee stings.

Misses Leler and Estelle Ware of Oak Grove spent the week end visiting in this section.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Caroli, Miss Maggie Lee Carroll, Messrs Sam, Edgar and Henry Lawrence Carroll and Play Payne visited Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Mason of Ware Shoals, S. C. Sunday.

Mr. J. K. Goforth went to Bostic N. C. Sunday where he expects to spend several days visiting relatives.

Urge Government Stick To "Umpiring."

Chicago, Ill., June 20.—(I.P.S.)—Government should act as an umpire only, and not as a player on either team. Malcolm Pinyan, editor, declared here recently, pointing out that business regimentation today represented a "dangerous threat to Americanism."

"Uncle Sam" he said, "should be an umpire in the ball game, and not a player on either team. He now wants to pitch for one side and bat for the other, as suits his fancy, and to field any ball that comes near him, whether he is on base or on the bench. That is not Americanism. Americanism," Mr. Pinyan asserted, "is the right to live your life as you will so long as it does not interfere with the lives of others and the existing laws."

SHIRT COSTS LESS HERE
To earn enough to buy a shirt with attached collar, a Swedish work er must work three times as long as an American; a Frenchman five and a half times as long; a German nine and a half times as long and an Italian 17 times as long.

CARILLON TOWERS AT THE FAIR

KRITICAL MOMENTS AND HOWLARIOUS SCOOPS
(By The Tattlers)

With everybody either gone or going someplace, news is rather scarce this week. It seems that those who aren't at either the Fair or have just returned from it are at a church conference or something. Well, at least Jimmy Darracott and Alice Betty, and Heaven knows who else, are at McTreat. But, maybe we can struggle through.

That crack that Phil shut Paul Stewart up with last Sunday tickled lots of people, including Carl Finger and Yours truly.

We wish to apologize for a crack we made last week and wish to assure our elder readers that it was a joke and that nobody was drunk. Helen Garrison is gone to Washington. So no wonder Fred has been in Kings Mountain every night this week, looking blue.

NOTICE FROM SEVERAL CORNERS: We want a dance. Can't somebody, asks several gals, throw a dance? Well, they asked us to ask somebody to do so, and here it is.

Note to Dot: Which one is leading in the race? We've heard several speculations, but won't venture one ourselves, though we do think Jim should stand a swell chance.

Eppie: Why all the hurry Sunday afternoon? She wouldn't mind if you were late.

TOM AND GEORGE

George: "Tom, why do you suppose that Eve ate the apple in the Garden of Eden?" Tom: "Well, I don't know unless it was because there wasn't a 'hot dog' stand anywhere around." Well, if our first parents fell for an apple, their descendants, or a lot of them have been falling for 'apple sauce' ever since. We are not spreading apple sauce when we tell you that any merchandise is no better than the dealer you buy it from—and furniture is no exception to the rule.
