Of INTEREST to WOMEN

PHONES 10-R AND 88 MRS. A. H. PATTERSON, Editor

HOSTESS TO BRIDGE CLUB

Miss Margaret Smith was hostess to her bridge club and invited guests entertaining at her home on last Thursday evening.

Mrs. Harry Warren scored high and Mrs. Coman Falls, low, each receiving attractive prizes.

A salad course with accessories was served.

Those present included Mesdames Harry Warren Coman Falls, Harry Page, Bill Thomson, George Moss; Misses Helen Hay, Mildred Moss, Sara Kate Ormand and Helen Ridenhour all of Kings Mountain, Mrs. Cutter of Greenville, S. C., and Mrs. Garland Still of Winston-Salem, N.C.

WARE-DIXON ANNOUNCEMENT

Of interest to friends is the announcement of the wedding of Mrs. Ruby Ware and Mr. Holland Dixon both of this city, which will take place Saturday, July 22.

The ceremony will take place at 5:00 o'clock in Central Methodist church. The Rev. E. W. Fox, pastor of the church, will officiate.

Miss Ware is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Ware. Mr. Dixon is the son of Mr. and Mrs. B. P. Dixon.

HEVENOR-SMITH

Miss Jane Smith, formerly of Kings Mountain was married to Mr. Charles Malcolm Hevenor, of Tulsa, Oklahoma, on Saturday, June 17. The marriage took place at the home of the bride's sister Mrs. Winfield Scott Ditch, at Riderwood, Maryland.

Upon the adjournment of Congress, Mr. and Mrs. Hevenor will leave for Tulsa and will visit Miss Margaret Smith, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Smith, enroute.

The couple are now making their home at 1916 R. S. T. Washington, D. C.

PRETTY PARTY FOR BRIDE

Mrs. W. K. Mauney, Jr., a recent bride was honored at a pretty party on last Thursday evening at the home of Miss Frances Goforth with Miss Goforth and Miss Salina Parton as joint hostesses.

The bridal colors, white and green were observed in the floral decorations which consisted of shasta daisies, Queen Anne's lace and other white summer flowers.

Mrs. Mauney scored high and Mrs. Jimmy Harris, low, each receiving attractive trophies. Mrs. Mauney was also presented a set of goblets in crystal. Five tables of bridge were in play.

A frozen salad course with accessories was served with the bride's outfit again emphasized. The favors were tiny celophane bags, filled with rice. The refreshment table was spread with attractive covers and centered with small vases of roses to which were attached tiny wedding bells.

BIRTH ANNOUNCEMENT

Mr. and Mrs. Jay Garvin of Allametta, Va., announce the birth of a daughter, Elizabeth Gaillard, on June 22nd at Memorial Hospital, Lynchburg, Va. Mr. and Mrs. Garvin lived in Kings Mountain for some time and have many friends here who will be interested in the above announcement.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED

Of cordial interest to Herald readers is the following announcement: Mrs. Julius Wrenn, of Siler City, announces the engagement of her daughter, Sara Margaret, to William Ralph Craig, Jr., of Kings Mountain. The marriage will take place in August.

Miss Wrenn is a member of the Kings Mountain School faculty.

TEA AT WOMAN'S CLUB

(Reported)

Mrs. A. H. Patterson and Miss Dorothy Patterson were hostesses at a tea given at the Woman's Club Tuesday afternoon honoring Miss Virginia Parsons, whose marriage to Mr. Ivan Rosenthal takes place this evening. Mrs. Harry Warren, nee Miss Sara Finger, a recent bride, and Mrs. John Phil Wilson of Cherryville, nee Miss Nancy Hord, of Kings Mountain, also a recent bride, Miss Margaret Wrenn, of Siler City, and Kings Mountain, whose engagement was announced Sunday, shared honors with the above.

The hall, lounge and assembly room of the first floor were arranged with bowls of mixed flowers in paste shades, vases of pink gladioli, baskets of shasta daisies and greenery.
