CRAIG-WREN WEDDING SOLEMNIZED IN NEW YORK

Siler City, Aug. 6.—In a ceremony marked by simplicity and beauty the wedding of Miss Sarah Margaret Wren of Siler City and William Ralph Craig Jr., of Kings Mountain, N. C., was solemnized on Wednesday August 2, at six o'clock in the evening in the Ambrose chapel of Christ Church, Methodist, at Park Avenue and 60th street in New York City.

Rev. Gordon Chamberlain officiated, using the impressive ring service of the Methodist church. The vows were spoken before a small group of relatives and friends assembled in the beautifully decorated chapel.

The bride was attended by her sister, Miss June Parker Wren, as maid of honor. Miss Wren wore a fall model of black taffeta made with shirred waistline and full skirt and trimmed in pleating and black velvet buttons. Her sailor hat was made of stitched black taffeta, to which a veil with white dots gave a chic effect. Other accessories were black and white, and her shoulder corsage was of gardenias.

Daniel Krupin of New York City attended the bridegroom as best man.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Dr. James C. Wren of Siler City and New York. She was attired in a most becoming costume woven suit of blackberry wine. The dress was made along fitted lines, with pleated skirt, sweetheart neckline and close-fitting sleeves. The lapels of her matching waist length jacket were of natural Kolinsky fur. Her hat, gloves and slippers were also of blackberry wine, and she wore a corsage of Talisman roses at her shoulder.

Mrs. Junius Wren, mother of the bride, wore a navy sheer crepe frock with navy and white accessories and a corsage of gardenias.

Mrs. Craig, elder daughter of the late Junius and Margaret Parker Wren of Siler City, is a native of High Point. She was graduated from the Siler City school and from Greensboro College, Greensboro. For several years she has taught in the high schools of North Carolina, in Leaksville, Pittsboro and during the past year at Kings Mountain.

Many social affairs have been given in her honor since the announcement of her engagement in June.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Craig, Sr., of Gastonia. He represents the Life Insurance Company of Virginia in Kings Mountain, where the couple will be at home in an apartment at 603 Mountain street, after August 10.
