THIS 'N THAT

Patterson Grove Section

Recently I had four people to ask me to leave their names out of the paper. That brings my total "No Publicity List" to five. I don't know why they don't want their names mentioned but I'm inclined to believe they're just putting on a false front. Couldn't that just be their way of asking for publicity? Seeing their names in the Chatter part of this column is what they most object to, so just to play safe (?) we'll stick to social items this week.

A revival meeting began at Patterson Grove Sunday. Rev. Suttle, pastor of the church, has charge of the services which are held each morning at 10:30 and each night at 7:45. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Greene of Oak Grove had as their Saturday night guests, Mr. and Mrs. Grover Greens and family of the Phoenix Mill. Sunday both families visited Rev. Suttle Greene and family of Vale, N. C.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Neeley and daughter and Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Neeley an son of Fort Mill, S. C., were visitors of relatives and friends here, Sunday.

Mr. Baise Patterson of Hickory Grove spent the week-end with relatives here.

Friends of Mrs. Howard Goforth will be sorry to hear that she has been suffering with an ear ailment for several days.

Miss Pearl Carroll of Bethany, S. C., is a visitor in this community.

Mr. J. K. Goforth recently spent the weekend in Bessemer City.

Mr. and Mrs. Harley Edwards of Shelby were guests of the Howard Goforth's Sunday.

Miss Frances Thornburg entertained a number of friends at a birthday party Saturday afternoon in celebration of her 11th birthday anniversary.

MARY—The New York World's Fair is the greatest spectacle I've ever seen! Spent a grand week in New York and stayed at the Hotel St. George, Brooklyn, N.Y. It's convenient to everything and only 25 minutes from the Fair. Ruth and I paid only $1.75 daily each for our breezy double room in their 30-story fireproof Club Tower overlooking the harbor. We enjoyed free: the beautiful salt water swimming pool, sun decks and lounge free on their breath-taking Skyline Terrace. You must see The Fair and you must stop at the St. George. If you'll write to Jim Kay at the hotel he'll send you a swell road map free. JANE

SHOOTING EXHIBITION
By Ken Beegle
One of The World's Finest Marksmen

Wednesday
August 16th
3:30 P. M

High School Ball Park
KING'S MOUNTAIN, N. C.

If you want to see some mighty fine shooting by America's crack shot, Ken Beegle, here's your opportunity. See Beegle demonstrate wallop by blasting open a can of tomatoes! Turning oranges to juice! Cabbage into coleslaw! High up in the air—with Kleanbore Hi-Speed 22's!

Watch him slip up a dummy penny and hit it with another Hi-Speed 22. And that's not all! With Remington guns and ammunition he'll put on an exhibition of plain and fancy shooting that you'll never forget!

The exhibition will also include a brief talk on safe handling of firearms, as well as expert instruction on how to improve your marksmanship.
