CROSLAND WEDDING SOLEMNIZED IN BENNETTSTOWN, S. C.

Wednesday morning, August 9, in the Methodist church in Bennettville, S. C., Miss Helen Goggans Crosland and Paul Eugene Hendrick, of Kings Mountain and Mocksville, N. C., were united in marriage. The program of nuptial music was rendered by Miss Grace Mitchell, Neville Bennett sang several selections.

Ushers were J. Everett Crosland of Lymon, Randolph Kirkpatrick of Wilmington, Dr. J. E. Crosland of Bennettsville, and William Weatherly of Bennettsville. The dame of honor was Mrs. J. W. Crosland, mother of the bride. The maid of honor was Miss Mary Halle of Laurens.

The bride entered with her brothers, Jack W. Crosland of Dallas, Texas, by whom she was given in marriage. The bridegroom entered with his brother, Grey Hendricks of Mocksville, who served as best man.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. F. Clark, pastor of the bride. The bride wore a navy chiffon ensemble with a corsage of orchids and valley lilies. She is the only daughter of Mrs. Helen Goggans Crosland and the late J. W. Crosland. Since her graduation at Winthrop college, she has taught in the high school at Kings Mountain.

Mr. Hendricks is a son of Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Hendricks of Mocksville. He is a graduate of Wake Forest college, and for four years has taught science in the high school at Kings Mountain, and also has trained a team that has won national recognition.

After the ceremony the bride and bridegroom left for a stay at Daytona Beach, Fla., after which they will make their home in Kings Mountain.

After the wedding Mrs. Crosland entertained the wedding party and out of town guests at a luncheon at her home.

Among Kings Mountain people attending the wedding were, Misses Hazel Falls, Gloria Cornwell, Betty Eco Neisler and Fay Moss; Grady Wallerson, George Thomasson, Ben

WAGONER-HENDRIX WEDDING

The following from a Forest City newspaper will be of interest here, the bride's father having been a former pastor of the Wesleyan Church at Kings Mountain where the family resided for a number of years:

A wedding of simplicity and quiet charm was that of Marisa Ruth Hendrix, of Forest City, to John Filmore Wagoner, of Elon College. The ceremony was performed at two o'clock Saturday, August 12, with Rev. Arnold Hendrix, father of the bride officiating.

The living room of the Hendrix home was a scene of dignity and beauty. Against a background of white ivy trailed giving an artistic setting for the service. A large, round mirror reflected the glow of the burning tapers and gave a cathedral effect to the room. An improvised altar of white with candleabra on each side and in the foreground completed the arrangement. Waxy white roses in white vases lent an atmosphere of loveliness to the occasion.

A program of nuptial music was rendered by Miss Sara Moss, who played "Venetian Love Song" by Nevin, and the Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin, by Wagner. "To a Wild Rose," by McDowell was softly played during the ceremony.

The tapers were lighted by Mrs. Mayme Meville of Salisbury, aunt of the bride, and Miss Mary Moss.

The bride and bridegroom entered the room together. The bride was charmingly attired in a navy blue outfit with white trim at throat and sleeves. A matching hat of blue felt with a smart feather, and white gloves and blue bag completed her costume. She wore a shoulder corsage of gardenia and lilies of the valley.

Mrs. Wagoner is a popular girl and is admired by many. A vivid personality, a charming manner and a contagious smile has won for her hosts of friends. She is a graduate of Kings Mountain high school and Asheville Teachers College, Asheville.

She has for the past two years been a member of the faculty of the Huntville School of Stokesdale. Mrs. Wagoner is the daughter of Rev. and Mrs. C. A. Hendrix of Forest City. Mr. Wagoner is the son of Mrs. Kate Wagoner and the late Lendon Wagoner of Elon College. He is a graduate of Elon College and the University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill, and is a member of the Iota Tau Kappa Fraternity. He has for the past four years been principal of Huntville school in Rockingham county. He is now principal of Farmer high school, Farmer, N. C., and they will make their home there.
