

EYE OPENERS...by Bob Crosby

19th CENTURY ENGLISH JUDGES WOULD NOT ALLOW PRISONERS TO TESTIFY IN THEIR OWN DEFENSE, BECAUSE THEY MIGHT PERJURE THEMSELVES THEREBY ENDANGERING THEIR OWN SOULS.

THE PARSICITE FORM OF VOTING, USED BY HITLER, WAS INTRODUCED IN EUROPE DURING THE FRENCH REVOLUTION.

WHEN GAS INTERFERED WITH THE DIVINE PLAN OF THE WORLD

THE BOSTON ADVERTISER CAMPAIGNED AGAINST GAS LIGHTING IN NEW ENGLAND BECAUSE "THE DIVINE PLAN OF THE WORLD PREORDAINED THAT IT SHOULD BE DARK AT NIGHT"

The placid form of voting, called by Hitler to justify his country's annexation of Austria and re-occupation of the Saar basin is not an invention of the Nazi dictatorship, as many people believe. This method of legalizing conquest was introduced by Napoleon I in the vast territories he acquired. And Napoleon III also made use of it.

In New England, such objections as increasing darkness and frightened horses, were arguments offered against gas lighting, which was the first use made of this superior fuel in the United States. To-day, gas serves some 5,000,000 American homes as the most fuel for cooking, water heating, refrigeration and house heating.

FOUR & ONE

If many people are as curious as we are about other people—they should read a gossip column—so read one. Waall here goes!

It looks as if Paul and a certain Gastonia lad are having a silent struggle—What about it Col, isn't Eppie the one and only now? What is that about an "old flame" never dying... what about it Bob, was it ever it? We used to think Jon Rawlings would be lonely when Dot scames-vous to school, but he seems to have already found other interests... The gals about town haven't been so lively since Bill Davis has been in the hospital, but do not worry dames, reports say he's crawling from behind the eight ball... We thought this Plonk-Pollock affair was as steady as they come—what happens ??? Mary Julia goes to New York and Sonce is seen with another gal! My Oh My!!!! Rumor has it that Jones was running a little behind schedule Friday night... Preacher caught the train. By the way, we thought that was a steady case oo!!! Will Betty Patrick ever make up her mind between Slobby and Gastonia??? This Dixie Cornwell is taking the town by storm... those on the wind struck list include: Buddy Williams Junior Moss, Carl Finger and others... Ask Betty Lee how she won 3 nickies when she and Jackie dated Fred and Tommy.

This bulletin has come to you through the courtesy of the "Four and One Press." For further details see next week's Herald.

By George!

That two weeks vacation we allotted ourselves, (spent in the drug and on the streets), is over, and here we are back, tho why, only the Lord and Gene, the motype man, knows.

We really shouldn't have missed both weeks, but we decided to give all of you a rest from this piffle. Thanks a whole lot for the many "I missed your columns" that we've heard. I'm proud of the fact that I show about at least four regular readers, and two who are rather mediocre on the subject. They read it if Virginia Logan happens to slip a little, just to sorta compare.

Since we last peeped in on you, some things have happened. Fessor Henderson and Bill Craig have become hitched. We went down for a few minutes to see Mr. and Mrs. Craig the other night, and found them just as happy as could be. (And with a really nice furnishing job.) The Fessor and his missus haven't returned yet, so we haven't seen them. Hope to soon.

Skimp Stofe, who has taken lessons from Charlie Thomason, and is almost as good as the latter, is doing alright. "Gin" told you about him last week—how he introduced Billy Briarhopper. Shucks, he has more bid to fame than that, because the other night he interviewed yours truly. Hey, Hey.

Right now I'm looking for a good one for Skimp.

"I talked to Clark Griffith," said Charlie Thomason, "but I never did find out why Jake didn't play Sunday." Personally, I think Chadlie's slipping. If not, he woulda found out. And while we're talking about Jake: Had a card from drum major Jones Fortune who is returning from Washington sometime tonight, and he says he went around and talked to Jake. Nothing, however, about why Jake didn't play Sunday.

Showing Jimmy Burns the letter with the man's picture on it which came in here safely the other day. I asked Jimmy if he thought he was that well known. "Naw," drawled Jimmy. "If you want to get something to me, just put my fingerprints on it." Which might not be a bad idea.
