HONORED ON BIRTHDAY

Eugene Mathis, Jr., was the inspiration of a most enjoyable party on last Tuesday evening, the affair given in celebration of his 15th birthday anniversary, with Miss Pearl Kerr as hostess.

A lovely color note of green and white was emphasized in the floral decorations and also in the delicious refreshments served at the conclusion of the party.

Chinese Checkers and Heart Dice provided amusements.

Guests included Eugene Mathis, Jr., Misses Betty Moore, Martha Sue

Martha McClain, Florence Rhea and Louise Wright; Ben H. Goforth, Jr., Glee Edwin Bridges, Ed Henry Smith, Jackie Gamble, Chas. A. Goforth, Jr., Howard Edens and I. Ben Goforth Jr.

HOSTS AT FAMILY DINNER

Mr. and Mrs. T. P. McGill entertained at a family dinner on Tuesday evening honoring their daughter Miss Martha Frances McGill on the occasion of her birthday anniversary. Other special guests were Mr. and Mrs. Earl McGill, whose marriage took place in the early fall.

SUNDAY DINNER GUESTS

Mrs. Eugene Mathis had as Sunday dinner guests Mr. and Mrs. M. T. Mathis and Miss Pauline McHugh of Greenville, S. C. Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Mathis of Lynchburg, S. C., Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Mathis and Miss Sallie Thomasson of St. Charles, S. C.

MEETING OF LEGION

AUXILIARY

Mrs. W. W. Souther and Mrs. Chas. A. Goforth were joint hostesses to members of the American Legion Auxiliary, entertaining at the home of the former on Tuesday afternoon.

The "Hallowe'en" color motif was effectively observed in the decorations.

Mrs. James Ware, the president had charge of the meeting which featured the installation of the following recently elected officers:

Mrs. James Ware, President.

Mrs. Baxter Hayes, secretary.

Mrs. Pride Ratterree, historian.

Mrs. L. D. Shuford, Sargeant at Arms.

Plans were made for a tea to be given at the home of Mrs. Davis next month.

Delicious refreshments were served, the Hallowe'en motif observed throughout.

Eighteen members were present.

BRIDGE HOSTESS

Mrs. Joe Neisler entertained members of her bridge club on last Tuesday afternoon.

Colorful fall flowers were used in decoration.

A sandwich and tea course was served after the game.

Those playing in included Mesdames Fred Plonk, Paul Neisler, E. A. Smith, R. H. Webb, Charles Dilling, Hefne Blackmer, Hunter Neisler and the hostess.

MISS KATHLEEN WALKER

BRIDE OF REV. ORMAND

The following excerpt from the Lost City W. Virginia newspaper, giving an account of the marriage of Rev. B. F. Ormand, Jr., formerly of Kings Mountain and Miss Mary Kathleen Walker of Lost River, was inadvertently omitted in earlier issues of the Kings Mountain Herald and a of cordial interest to the many friends and relatives of the bridegroom in this section.

Miss Mary Kathleen Walker, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Walker, of Lost River, and the Rev. B. F. Ormand, Jr., son of the late Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Ormand, Sr., of Kings Mountain, N. C. were united in marriage Tuesday evening, August 22, at 7:30 o'clock in the Lost River Methodist church by the Rev. B. T. Price of Catlett, Va., and Rev. O. W. Perrill of Williamsville, Va. The impressive ring ceremony was used.

The church was beautifully decorated with rhododendron, ferns and white gladioli; and lighted with white candles, carrying out a color scheme of green and white.

preceding the ceremony, the Rev. Fawly Gruber, of Hedgesville, san, Because, and, Liebestraume, by Liszt. Mrs. Marion Billmyre Byron of Shepherdstown, accompanied him on the program. The wedding marches were played by Mrs. Mary Marshall, Lohengrin's being used as the processional and Mendelssohn's as the recessional.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was beautifully attired in a white satin gown in process style, with long sleeves and a circular train; with her long veil of tulle falling from a lace coronet. She carried a white prayer book with sprays of lilies of the valley tied with long streamers of white satin ribbon.

The matron of honor, Mrs. E. R. Wagoner, sister of the bride, wore peach chiffon with blue accessories and carried an arm bouquet of blue delphiniums. The bridesmaids were Miss Helen Strawderman, who wore pale yellow chiffon and carried an arm bouquet of orchid gladioli and Miss Ethelyn Carpenter, who wore pale blue chiffon and carried salmon gladioli. All wore matching hats of picture style. Little Miss Lavinia Ann Wagoner, niece of the bride, was flower girl. She wore a long gown of pink taffeta and pink shoes.

The bridegroom had as his best man his brother, Jack Ormand, of Kings Mountain, N. C. The ushers were, the Rev. Roscoe Prince, of Onacoke, Va., and Harold Walker (Cont'd on back page)
