

Mountaineers In 41-0 Win Over N. C. S. D.

"By George" Unprecedented and totally unexpected happenings in the Western Conference last week placed Coach Cline Farthing's "Terrific Twenty Two" Mountaineers in the limelight of the conference, and made them odds-on favorites to come out ahead of anything in this immediate territory. However, two former losses will probably keep them from coping the conference crown.

Kings Mountain's dauntless Mountaineers went to Morganton, rated as the underdog. They dressed, still rated as the underdog, because the D and D's looked pretty tough. Then Mr. Farthing put an inspiration to work. [The inspiration probably came during the week, but he kept it to himself for several days. So, when the game started, he put it to work. He scrambled his team until it looked like a Banana Split that's been worked upon with an egg beater. Then he told the boys, "Alright, do your best, and woe be he who loafs."

To make a long story short, it worked. Everyone on the team, from Morrison to Moss tried to run a touchdown, and practically every one except the linemen — who by the way, can't carry the ball—succeeded. Little Moss ran two of them, and Janky Mitcham ran one. The boys got mad, tried three passes, completed three of them, two for touchdowns, and did a little of everything. The outcome — Mountaineers 41, the Deaf lads, nothing, absolutely.

While all this was happening, other things also happened to help the Mountaineers. Shelby went over to Gastonia and engaged the Green Wave in a slightly mucky tussle. The Greenies did them just as they did our Mountaineers — waited until the final minutes of the final quarter to beat Casey's lads 7 to nothing. Which rates Kings Mountain slightly above Shelby.

Bessemer City's new West Conference Scrappers got beat at Morganton. Kings Mountain becomes the leading contenders, with the one exception of Cherryville.

This week, the "Terrific Twenty Two" invaded the Memorial Stadium at Charlotte, where they have Harding High as an opponent. The Mountaineers are favored to bring home the bacon.

Mrs. Huckaby is an expert in her chosen profession and local ladies should avail themselves of her services.

Store Employees Help To Harvest Hidden Tax Crop

Kings Mountain has an estimated 177 "unofficial tax collectors" who indirectly are helping local, state and national governments harvest their annual revenues, the National Consumers Tax Commission declared recently.

The unofficial, and generally unwilling "tax collectors," according to the NCTC are the proprietors and employees in the 56 local retail stores.

"There are 2,008 official tax levying and spending governmental agencies in North Carolina," said Mrs. Melville Muckleston, president of the national wide women's organization. "But every clerk behind a store counter is actually a tax collector, too."

"In every sale, these clerks collect fractions of hidden taxes that have increased the cost of production and distribution of the article purchased. These taxes of necessity must be passed on to the consumer as a part of the price. A major share of all local, state and national taxes now are hidden to the consumers who pay them this way."

"However, retail merchants should not be blamed. No business could possibly survive today if it attempted to absorb the multitude of taxes to which it is subject. In consequence, every ring of the cash register represents not only a sale but a tax payment."

The NCTC now has study groups in approximately 5,100 communities

In 46 states in its educational campaign to expose "unnecessary consumer-penalizing taxes," Mrs. Muckleston said. The crusade in this state is led by Mrs. William T. Hannah, of Waynesville, state director and Mrs. J. Talbot Johnson, of Aberdeen, national committee member.
