

4 STEEL FACTS in one minute

Steel-making Takes Time
Nearly 12 hours are required to make a heat of steel in an open hearth furnace. Nine-tenths of all steel is made by that process.

Knights Took Iron As Medicine
Ancient knights used to drink water in which a sword had rusted, hoping to absorb strength from the steel.

Steel Taxes Exceeded Available Earnings

The steel industry's tax bill of $92,500,000 last year was 18% more than the net earnings remaining after meeting all other operating expenses.

The Fire Proof City—New Braunfels, Texas

All roofs in New Braunfels, Tex., have been fireproofed, mostly with sheet steel and iron. Insurance rates were cut 75% thereby.

By George!

"Fools rush in" We knew from the first that we shouldn't have been there, because certainly no angel ever trod therein. But, it was almost a necessity, so we rambled in, risking our necks among the jitterbugs.

Without looking to see if the booth were previously occupied, we took a seat on the edge of the bench, because it was rather dangerous out amongst the jitterbugs. Suddenly, without any precedence whatsoever, we were astounded. At first we thought our ears were playing tricks. It couldn't be true! But it was. From the same booth which we had chosen as a haven of safety it came:

" . . . will thou accept me . . . "

The worship the heart lifts above And the heavens reject not . . . "

It, surrounded by jitterbugs, sounded like "The Beer Barrel Polka" at a church social. Slowly we turned to see what freak could be quoting Shelly in such a joint. The face we looked into might have been humiliated.

He looked at us. The Shelly stopped. "I'm gonna get drunk, he announced. Then he ordered another bottle of beer. We noticed four already empty ones before him.

"Well, its really none of my business, and pardon me for asking, but why? We started to add that he wasn't going to get drunk — he was already plastered.

"'Cause me 'n my gal had a quarrel, and she's dating another guy, he answered, his tongue thickened by the alcoholic beverages, both legal and illegal. That explained the Shelly.

"But why get drunk? That wont help matters," he began.

"Oh yes it will. I'll just show her that I don't care. Then see what she says." Another glass of beer, then: "Ain't you never had a girl?"

We couldn't say yes. So he asked: "Ain'tcha never wanted one — A special one?"

That was getting too personal, so we brought the conversation back around to him and the bottle. But he persisted. "Well, when you wanted to show some girl that you did not care, didn't you ever get drunk?" "No," we told him, "didn't see any sense in it."

"But its fun," he told us. "You just forget everything, and have a good time."

"But what about the morning after?" we asked. "Some people say they are pretty bad things to have."

"Your'e a cynic," the guy told us. Just then we had to leave. As we took our departure, his opinion of us came in a snort of disgust: "Just a plain nuts — and a cynic."

We didn't have time to go back and give him our opinion of him.

Southern States Fair Slated For October 24 to 28

New Exposition Will Occupy Late Dr. J. P. Matheson Estate on Concord Road One Mile North of Charlotte.

A new fair will open in Charlotte, N. C., October 24 and continue through October 28, under the direction of Dr. J. S. Dorton, manager of the North Carolina state fair, Raleigh, and secretary-treasurer of the Cleveland county fair, Shelby, N. C.

Chartered the Southern States Fair, the new exposition will occupy the old Dr. J. P. Matheson estate on the Concord four-lane highway, one mile north of the Charlotte city limits. Six modern buildings have been erected, including a large grandstand combined with a large display hall, a poultry building, a cattle building and three big horse barns.

A half-mile race track, one of the finest in the south, encircles a picturesque lake and administration building. The track has been equipped with steep banked turns to permit fast horse racing and automobile racing.

According to Dr. Dorton, president and general manager of the new association, upwards of $25,000 in cash purses and premiums will be distributed during the week of the fair. A sum of $10,000 has been set aside for premium awards with an addition $15,000 for grandstand entertainment.

Afternoon grandstand attractions booked for the week of the fair include horse and pony racing, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday; Lucky Teter and his Hell Drivers, Wednesday, and A.A.A. automobile racing, Saturday.

Every evening, from Tuesday to Saturday, a glamorous Broadway revue will be presented on the stage in front of the grandstand. Supporting stage attractions will include outstanding circus and hippodrome acts. A fireworks display will conclude each nightly grandstand show.

In charge of midway entertainment will be the celebrated World of Mirth Shows, one of the largest carnivals in the country.

Giant rats that measure three feet long, from nose to tip of tail, are found in Netherland's New Guinea.

Have Your Eyes Examined, Glasses Fitted —By— DR. D. M. MORRISON Optometrist - Eye Specialist Will be in Kings Mountain Office on Every Tuesday and Friday afternoons. Hours 1 P. M. to 5 P. M.
