

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL HAPPENINGS Of INTEREST to WOMEN

PHONES 10-R AND 88 MRS. A. H. PATTERSON, Editor

HOSTESS AT ENJOYABLE PARTY

Mrs. Joe Neisler was hostess at a unique and most enjoyable party on last Friday evening, this being one of the many pre-nuptial parties given in honor of Mrs. Wm. F. Brewer, nee Miss Pauline Neisler, whose marriage took place yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. Neisler's home was arranged with lovely fall flowers and autumn foliage.

The guests were asked to come in "kid" costumes.

Bridge and bingo furnished amusement for the evening, the guests given amusing rules for playing. Losers wore dunce caps and played wearing canvas work gloves. Winners were requested to keep jaw breakers in the mouth while playing.

Following the game, pictures were made of the guests. The honoree was presented a snapshot album.

Mrs. Harold Crawford received high score prize in bridge and Miss Jean Ware low score prize.

Mrs. George Davis scored high in bingo. Guests included the honoree and the following: Mesdames C. E. Neisler, W. A. Ridenhour, George Davis, Harold Hunnicutt, Harold Crawford, Coman Falls, Robert Miller, Paul Neisler, F. E. Finger, Harry Warren, George Houser, of Shelby, Hunter Neisler, Harry Page; Misses Mary Mitchell, Dorothy Patterson, Jean Ware, Helen Ridenhour, Margaret Smith, Mildred Moss, Sara Kate Ormand, Helen Hay.

HOSTESS TO HOME ARTS CLUB

Mrs. J. E. Herndon entertained the Home Arts Club and guests on last Wednesday afternoon.

Colorful fall flowers were arranged throughout the rooms.

Mrs. George Moss was in charge of an interesting Thanksgiving program and was assisted by Mrs. W. E. Blakely and Mrs. J. E. Anthony.

Mrs. Wm. F. Brewer whose marriage was an event of this week, was a guest of honor, and was presented an attractive gift.

A salad with accessories and a sweet course was served.

HOSTESS TO SOCIAL CLUB MEMBERS AND GUESTS

Mrs. R. L. Mauney was hostess to the Social Club members and invited guests, entertaining at her home on Piedmont Avenue, last Thursday afternoon.

Flowers and other decorations in keeping with the holiday season made the home unusually inviting.

Mrs. Wm. F. Brewer, nee Miss Pauline Neisler, was a guest of honor and was presented a gift.

Mrs. M. A. Ware won high score prize and Mrs. Harold Hunnicutt won low score prize.

A salad with accessories and a sweet course was served.

CLASS MEETS

The Gleasons' Class of the First Baptist Church recently held its regular monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. W. M. Moorehead with Mrs. C. C. Oates as joint hostess.

A very interesting Thanksgiving program was enjoyed at the conclusion of the business session. Games and contests were led by Mrs. A. E. Yarboro and Mrs. Ray Kirby.

During the Social Hour attractive plates consisting of a salad, sandwiches, potato chips, Russian tea, and home made candy were passed to Mesdames Eugene Roberts, Lee Dixon, Clyde Lindsay, Gilbert Hord, Cline Farthing, Ray Kirby, Citus Blackwell, Shelley Gibson, J. P. Dillard, Frank Cox, Erwin Martin, D. M. Bridges, Earl Tate, I. McGill, A. E. Yarboro, Arthur Allen Watkins, C. C. Oates and W. M. Moorehead.

JUNIOR WOMANS CLUB TO MEET

The Junior Women's Club will meet Monday night at 7:30 in the Woman's Club building. This is the Christmas meeting and each member is asked to bring a doll, costing not over 25 cents.

BIRTH ANNOUNCEMENT

Born to Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Frederick, Jr., a daughter, Vickie Peinette, Nov. 24. Mrs. Frederick was formerly Miss Hazel Hawkins of this city.

BREWER-NEISLER

An exceptionally beautiful wedding was that of Miss Pauline Neisler and Ensign William Francis Brewer, U. S. N. R., which was solemnized Wednesday afternoon at 4:00 o'clock at the First Presbyterian Church. Candlelight from cathedral candles in four seven-branched candelabra illuminated the setting for the wedding.

Graceful arrangements of palms and ferns formed the background for the decorations. White chrysanthemums were used on the altar and in tall white baskets. The pews for the relatives and out of town guests were marked with white chrysanthemums.

The wedding music was rendered by Mrs. W. A. Ridenhour at the organ. Her program included: "Ardantino" in D flat by Lemare, "My Heart at thy Sweet Voice" by Saint Saens, "The Sweetest Story Ever Told" by Stults, and "Venetian Love Song" by Nevin.

Lohengrin's Wedding March was used for the processional and Mendelssohn's Wedding March for the recessional.

Mrs. P. M. Neisler sang "Constancy", and "I Love You Truly". As the vows were spoken "O Perfect Love" was played.

Rev. P. D. Patrick, pastor of the bride, officiated.

Mrs. Harry Warren was the matron of honor and the only attendant.

The ushers were Mr. Thomas Miller of Wilson, N. C., Messrs. Gene, Joe, and Hunter Neisler, brothers of the bride.

The bride was radiantly lovely in her wedding gown of ivory Duchess satin with sweetheart neck and long sleeves with points over the hands. The skirt of the gown extended into a long circular court train. Her veil of imported Brussels lace was worn with a coronet of orange blossoms. Her bridal bouquet was lilies of the valley and brides roses.

The dame of honor's gown was Dahlia satin with bustle and with full skirt. She wore a turban of Dahlia velvet and her flowers were yellow roses, lilies of the valley and sweet peas.

Mrs. Neisler, mother of the bride wore a black crepe gown trimmed with sequin with black turban of velvet and sequin. Her flowers were a shoulder corsage of talisman roses and lilies of the valley.

The mother of the bridegroom, Mrs. C. S. Brewer, wore a gown of black velvet with matching hat and her flowers were talisman roses and valley lilies.

Immediately after the ceremony, Mrs. Neisler entertained at an informal reception at her home. Only the close relatives and friends of the bride and bridegroom were present.

The home was arranged throughout with quantities of Chrysanthemums. Guests were greeted at the door by Mrs. Harold Hunnicutt and Mrs. Hunter Neisler and presented to the receiving line, which was composed of the bridal party and parents of the bride and bridegroom.

Mrs. Harry Page and Mrs. P. M. Neisler received in the hall and directed the guests to the gift room where Mrs. W. R. Wilkins and Mrs. George Houser presided.

Mrs. W. A. Ridenhour greeted the guests at the dining room.

The dining room table was covered with an exquisite lace cloth the centerpiece being a crystal bowl of white roses, snapdragons and sweet peas with crystal candelabra on either side. Guests were served individual brides cake and cream molded in the shape of wedding bells, brides slippers and Calla Lilies and mints, by Misses Betty Neisler, Helen Hay, Jean Ware, Mildred Moss, Sara Kate Ormand, Margaret Smith and Mary Mitchell.

Mrs. Jim Herndon and Mrs. George P. Davis presided over the register.

Punch was served in the sun parlor by Miss Helen Ridenhour and Mrs. Frank Richards, and Mrs. Joe Neisler bid the guests good-bye.

Following the reception the young couple left for a wedding trip. Upon their return they will be at home in the Larchmont Apartments, Norfolk, Va.

For traveling Mrs. Brewer wore a dress of deer brown with brown accessories, and a Vicugna fur coat. She wore a small Vicugna fur turban.

cessories, and a Vicugna fur coat. She wore a small Vicugna fur turban.

The bride is the youngest daughter of Mrs. C. E. Neisler and the late Mr. C. E. Neisler, founder of the Neisler Mills.

On her maternal side she is the grand-daughter of the late W. A. Mauney of Kings Mountain, and on her paternal side the grand-daughter of the late Joseph Rankin Neisler of Concord, N. C., both of whom were pioneers in the textile industry of the South. She was graduated from Ward-DeLmont School, Nashville, Tenn., and has traveled extensively in this country and Europe.

Many lovely parties have been given for Mrs. Brewer since the announcement of her engagement.

Mr. Brewer is the son of Mrs. C. S. Brewer and the late Mr. Brewer of Henderson, N. C. He was graduated from Davidson in 1935 with a P. S. degree where he was a member of the Beta Theta Phi fraternity. He is also a graduate of the Naval Air Station, Pensacola, Florida, of 1937. Since graduating he has been stationed in Panama until recently but is now at Norfolk, Va.

He is a member of one of the prominent families of Eastern Carolina and is a direct descendant of John Hart, one of the signers of the Declaration of Independence.

Out of town guests for the wedding were: Mrs. C. S. Brewer, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brewer, Lucy Brewer, Charles Brewer, Jr., of Henderson, N. C.; Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Snead, Robert Brewer, Washington. (Cont'd on back page)
