BASEBALL PRACTICE STARTED

Coach A. E. Smart of Kings Mountain High School announced yesterday that baseball practice had begun for the Mountaineers, with light workouts in the gymnasium.

Smart cannot hide his optimism, but said that he hoped for the best. Several players were returned to the squad, including Burton and James Bennett, catcher and second baseman, Charlie Ballard, pitcher, and James Gibson, "tar bucket" outfielder. Two boys have been practicing regularly in the gymnasium for the past week. Uniforms have been issued and as soon as the weather becomes suitable, Mr. Smart will have the boys out on the field and doing real work.

RESOLUTIONS

We, the members of the Woman's Missionary Society of Central Methodist Church, Kings Mountain, N. C., wish to pay a loving tribute to the memory of one of our dear friends, Mrs. Annie Dilling, who left us December 26, 1939.

In the passing of Mrs. Dilling we have lost a loyal friend and a faithful member of our society. We shall miss her in the work of our church and society.

We extend our deepest sympathy to her family and commend them to the loving care of Him who loves us all.

Resolved that copies of this be sent the family, Kings Mountain Herald, North Carolina Christian Advocate, and a copy be spread upon the minutes.

Kings Mountain Needs a Laundry

And The Best Town in The State is very fortunate in having one that is equipped to do first class work. The way to keep that Laundry in Kings Mountain is by patronizing it. It will be too late after the Laundry is forced to close for lack of business, so the time to support your laundry is now, while it is a going institution.

Why not try Your Home Town Laundry, this week, just phone 270 and a driver will call and explain the different services offered.
