Complete Course In Home Hygiene.

Members of the Bonnie Mill Club recently completed the course in Home Hygiene and Care of the Sick. Mrs. Prude Ratterree was the instructor and the course was given under the sponsorship of the Local Red Cross.
 The club members presented Mrs. Ratterree with a lovely pot plant and also took out a membership in the Red Cross as a token of appreciation.
 The club is under the leadership of Mrs. M. L. Houser.
 One member of the club expresses her appreciation in the following rhyme:

OUR CLUB
 Although our club is new
 We're seldom ever blue;
 Because we like it very much
 I'm sure you'd like it too.
 At first we sing a song,
 Then send grace up to the "throne"
 The minutes are read and roll is called.
 For this, it doesn't take long.
 We then have a talk on Hygiene
 This teaches us to be very clean;
 Not only that, but straighten our back.
 By showing us which way to lean.
 Ten cents a week is our dues.
 This soon may buy us some shoes.
 It is put to good use, we assure
 To comfort and cheer in case of blues.
 So lets get some more members,
 And get us some timbers,
 To build us a new club house.
 Build it up and ron't be limber.
 Well, well girls what so you say
 Lets get some more members today
 If in earnest, no need for delay,
 We should get to work right away.

JANE: Today is Mother's birthday. This is the first time I've ever forgotten it. What WILL she think?

JOHN: She'll probably think you're a very thoughtless daughter, unless you happen to remember Long Distance. Your mother lives only about 95 miles away, you know.

JANE: Of course—the telephone! Why didn't I think of that?

JOHN: Why should you think when you have a mental giant like me around?

JANE: It was simply grand talking with Mother. She said it was the best birthday present she ever received. Wasn't it lucky you thought of the telephone!

JOHN: Lucky, nothing—it's the genius in me!
