JUNIOR WOMAN'S CLUB MEETS

The Junior Woman's Club met on Monday evening, May 6th, at the home of Mrs. Paul McGinnis, with Mrs. McGinnis and Mrs. John Casey as hostesses.

After the business was attended to, Mrs. Charles Oates, the president told the club of her trip to Greensboro to attend the Convention of The North Carolina Federation of Women's Clubs and discussed with the club some new ideas which she had brought back from the convention.

A social hour, during which the hostesses served a salad and sweet course was then enjoyed.

The following names were added to the club roll as new members: Mesdames Elmo Bridges, and Grady McCarter, and Misses Martha Frances McGill, Margaret Cornwell, Mary Sue McGinnis, and Lucille McGinnis.

NATION HONOR SOCIETY INDUCTS NEW MEMBERS

Seven members, three from the Senior Class and four from the Junior, were inducted at the recent induction exercises of the National Honor Society. Mothers of those inducted had been secretly invited for the impressive ceremony, and were on hand to witness it. New members are not informed of their selection until they are called from the audience to take the oath.

Fifteen percent of the class can be members of the local Kings Mountain high school chapter of the organization. There were already 9 members in the organization. Those inducted recently were: Rachel McClain, Billy Throneburg, Betty Lee Neisler and Doris White, of the Junior Class; and Agnes Abernathy Eoline Keeter and Faye Moss, of the Senior Class.

This is the highest scholastic honor which can be bestowed upon a student in Kings Mountain High School.

NEXT SUNDAY IS MOTHER'S DAY
It's funny about these mothers,
The things they cherish so,
Our locks of hair, our little shoes,
We wore so long ago.
To you who still have mothers,
Let them know you think they're grand,
And this Mother's Day, let's not forget
One Mother in this land.
Remember her with flowers
