PRISONER AT THE BAR

Prominent Citizens In Murder Trial Drama

A plea of a condemned man for justice that has thrilled thousands throughout the United States will be delivered by George Young Hammond of Hollywood, California, when he appears in his famous true life court drama, "PRISONER AT THE BAR," at the Central Methodist Church of Kings Mountain on Thursday night, May 16th at 8:00 o'clock. This famous drama is being sponsored by churches of Kings Mountain and nearby towns.

The trial deals with a man, Ralph Jones, who is charged with the murder of his wife while under the influence of liquor. The State charges that the crime was committed in the presence of the defendant's ill-ed to testify against him. The defendant charging others in the courtroom with the murder — the battle between the opposing attorneys over the use of the child as a witness — the commotion in court when the defendant makes a break to stop his little daughter from testifying. These are some of the gripping scenes in this powerful drama from real life.

The Methodist Board of Temperance has secured the personal appearance of the author, George Young Hammond of Hollywood, for the production of this drama throughout the country.

Supporting Mr. Hammond, who will appear in the title role as "Prisoner," will be Hayward J. Johnson of Portland, Oregon, and the following cast of local citizens: Judge J. Proctor Thompson; Defense Attorney, J. R. Davis; Prisoner's Little Daughter, Alda Jean Davis; Police Officer, Chief of Police, J. A. Burns; Finger-Print Expert, Rev. H. C. Sprinkle, Jr.; Clerk, Rev. W. S. Johnson; Star Witness for State, Mrs. J. E. Mauney and Bailiff, Supt. B. N. Barnes. Summoned for jury duty are: B. S. Neill, Haywood E. Lynch, B. S. Peeler, H. C. Wilson, R. L. Lynn, W. O. Morris, Z. F. Cranford, W. M. Gantt, J. E. Mauney, H. T. Fulton, Dr. J. E. Anthony and Dr. S. M. Baker.

The Methodist Board of Temperance is presenting this modern drama of liquor without admission charge, as part of its nation-wide program of education. An offering will be taken.

C. S. Simmons of Pollocksville, Jones County, has a demonstration poultry flock of 14 hens that returned him a net profit of $43.17 in March, reports Assistant Farm Agent Jack Kelly.

Mountaineers In Close Win From Bessemer City

Sidelights Of The Band

The money spent on phone calls from West Palm Beach to Kings Mountain:

Ladd Hamrick pleading to the op-was talking to Byron Keeter, incoming President of the Band Parents Association.

Editor Haywood E. Lynch, paying Postmaster W. E. Blakely $1.78 postage on copies of The Herald for band members in Florida.

Charlie Thomason said that he could hear Ladd Hamrick "feeding" money to the telephone so he could get to ALL about the winners.

Glee Bridges stopping by the Herald Office a little after 6 A. M. to find what the editor was doing down so early.

Harold Hunnicutt dropped by to check up on the band information and to inform the Editor that he will have his airplane at the local airport today.

Editor Lynch was called out of bed both Friday and Saturday morning to tell inquiring followers of the Band how the Boys and Girls did.

Kings Mountain is certainly interested in the Musicians from the Best Town in the State.

Congratulations, Boys and Girls, Director Hendricks, and all of Kings Mountain who did their part to make (his accomplishment possible — Your Home-Town Paper — The Herald.

On every street corner and in every store yesterday the question was "Have you heard from the Band Yet?"

Most business houses and supporters wired congratulations to the Band in Florida. Charlie Thomason got Western Union Phillips to open up before time to start the happy messages South.

Everyone likes a WINNER and The Band from the Best Town in The State is a WINNER.

Kings Mountain's near-champions Mountaineers went to town, so to speak, against Bessemer City here Tuesday afternoon, marking up their seventh straight conference victory, and staying out in the lead in the conference by at least two games by a score of 11-10. Official standings have not been posted for the past two weeks by Cassell, head of the Western Conference.

Ballard, classy all over, took the weight of the victory on his shoulders alone, after both Goins and Cobb had been battered all over the lot.
 He marked up the victory in the last three innings of the ball game.
 Without the service of Smith, flashy first sacker, the Mountaineer were demoralized, and marked up ten errors putting the ball in a foul condition. Goins, who started seized in the fifth, Cobb lasted until the early part of the seventh, and turned over an already bad deal to Ballard, who struck out eleven and won the ball game.

Ballard also did a good job at bat knocking a home run in the first and winning the game in the ninth with a double, when the score was 10 to 9 against him. His hit brought in two Kings Mountain runs and won the game.

Friday the team meets Shelby here, and fans are praying for a win.

The Southernares At Dixie Theatre

The Southernares, Kings Mountain's own string band will appear on the Stage at the Dixie Theatre Friday night at 9 p. m. This quartet was declared winners of the North and South Carolina String Band contest last week in Charlotte. The local boys are considered to be unusually good and are making preparations to appear on Major Bowes Original Amateur Hour in New York City.

The Stage appearance is an added feature as the complete picture program will be presented, and Manager C. E. Cash says he will like to see a large audience hear the Southernares.

Small Fire Monday

Firemen were called Monday at 2:11 P. M. to the residence of A.
 B. Putnam on Church Street when a pile of lumber in the back yard caught on fire. The lumber was destroyed, but firemen kept the fire from spreading to the nearby house.
 A cardrivers was arrested going to the fire for being too close to the trucks, which is a violation of the law, and other motorists are warned to stay a reasonable distance behind the truck when going to a fire.

Mrs. D. A. Bell Dies

Mrs. D. A. Bell, 61, died at her home in the Oak Grove community near Kings Mountain Tuesday afternoon at 5 o'clock, after a lingering illness.

Mrs. Bell was the daughter of the late Thomas E. Lovelace and Julia Ann Hamrick Lovelace. She is survived by her husband, D. A.
 Bell; two daughters, Mrs. Everett Ford and Mrs. Etta Bell; five sons, Charles S. of Gastonia, Claude, Edgar and William, of Oak Grove, and Monroe J. of Charlotte, and Kings Mountain; one sister, Mrs. T. M.
 Ware; 20 grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Funeral services will be held this morning at 11 o'clock at the Oak Grove Baptist church of which Mrs.
 Bell had been a member since she was 14 years of age. The pastor, Rev. Luther Hawkins, will officiate and burial will be in the family plot in Oak Grove cemetery.

Tennis Players To Go To Shelby Saturday

Kings Mountain High School Tennis players will go to Shelby Saturday to compete in the Western Conference Net meet there. This will be the third net meet for the Mountaineers this season.

They have defeated Bessemer City once and lost to Shelby. Miss Vera Sargeant was the only Mountaineer successful in her conquest last week against the Shelby team.

A CORRECTION

According to the advertisement announcement of the opening of the Kings Mountain Foundry, which ran in the last issue of the Herald, the telephone number of the Foundry is 2402. This was a mistake. The number should have been 2404.

Miss Helen Stuart Wins Beauty Title

Miss Helen Stuart, winsome blonde, was announced Miss Kings Mountain in the Beauty pageant which was held at the Dixie Theatre last Thursday night. Miss Stuart won over a group of about twenty of Kings Mountain's loveliest.

Winner in the battle for Little Miss Kings Mountain was Peggy June Crocker, 4 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Crocker.
 Mary Evelyn Gotroff and Edna Hoffman, respectively, were runners up in the Senior event, with Patricia Hayes coming second in the junior group, and Judy Jenkins getting third place.

Miss Stuart will represent Kings Mountain in the State Contest at Rocky Mount and have a screen test. Little Miss Crocker will have a photograph of herself entered in the Junior finals.

Gardy Watterson and Gloria Corn well, masters of the art of Jitter-bugging, won the amateur contest.
 They will go to the state contest.
