Kings Mountain Herald Published Every Thursday

HERALD PUBLISHING HOUSE, Haywood E. Lynch Editor-Manager

Matered as second class matter a Postoffice at Kings Mountain C., under tre Act of March !

SUBSCRIPTION RATES One Year $1.50

A weekly newspaper devoted t the promotion of the general wel fare and published for the enlight ment, entertainment and benefit of the citizens of Kings Mountain and Sts vicinity.

If I knew the box where the smiles are kept,

No matter how large the key, Or strong the bolt, I would try so hard

'Twould open, I know, for me. Then over the land and the sea broadcast,

I'd scatter the smiles to play, That the children's faces might hold them fast

For many and many a day.

If I knew a box that was large nough

To hold all the frowns I meet, I would like to gather them every one. From nursery, school and street.

Then, folding and holding, I'd pack them in. And, turning the monster key, I'd hire a giant to drop the box

-Selected:

To the depths of the deep, deep

WE ARE PROUD

We are proud of The Kings Moun tain School Band, Director Paul E. Hendricks and the citizens of The Best Town In The State in the accomplishments achieved last week in West Palm Beach, Florida. It took all three to make. a winner combination that could comete and win against the most outstanding bands in the South.

If the same spirit of co-operation could prevail in other civis matters as it does when the band is men tioned, Kings Mountain could attain goals just as outstanding in other fields.

We are proud of the band, and say in our loudest manner: CON GRATULATIONS.

THE NEIGHBORLY WHANG

Did you ever hear of a good oldfashioned whang? It was a very ne ghborly affair and enjoyed in that because of it the dread of some bit of tiresome work was eliminated.

In the early days of our colonies. it was the custom for neighbors to join forces when some work was done. This was ecpecially true when soap had to be made, quilts tied, carpets sewed, and apple butter made for the homes and when the crops were gathered and wood cut on the farm.

If only a couple of neighbors help ed each other in this way it was often referred to as change work, and we still find this going on in the country today. But when a large number of men or women got together to do some heavy work it was called a "whang."

Just when this odd term originated is not known, although it was more commonly used in New England than anywhere else; but the original of the term itself was in dang dings that were especially dreaded when one householder had to do them alone. The annual housecleaning was nearly always called a whang, as shown by an old diary that says, "Went about ye usual summer cleaning, whanging ye dirt and culch away from ye floors and beds."

Another adcount mentions, "Nets ghbor Allen car.e in with dauters and frends and we all had a whang. cleaning ye house of all wastrel with no distress."

Usually at a whang everybody got busy with a right good will and each had his part to do in cleaning Then at noon, a substantial meal was served and plans were made to return the compliment and have whang somewhere else within a few days. By so assisting one another, none felt over-tired when the work accomplished and did not dread going to the neighbors to help Later the term "whang" referred to FIELD DAY TUESDAY any particularly irksome task done by a company of people.—Exchange.

Here and There

Haywood E. Lynch)

Kings Mountain definition BLITZKREIG: Citizens at mass meeting raising money to send band to Florida.

Fred Rudisill, a native of Kings Mountain, dropped us a letter the other day requesting us to add his name to Herald subscribers, and conveying this bit of information:

"Don't know whether you want to make a story out of this for this week's edition, but feel quite sure it will be of interest to the 'Ol' Home Town Fans.' You possibly knew that Horace, known to musical fans as 'Rudy,' has been with Jan Garber's orchestra for the last eighteen years. Well, Jan is present ing him with a new band of his own at Tom Devine's Music Hall in In-ਰੇਜ਼ੀਜ਼ਬਿਆਵਿ, ਜੀਆ, ਜਵਿਜਾਰੀਜੰਡੇ ਜਿਸਦੇ ਹੈ, May 17th, and going from there for an engagement at Cedar Rapids. lowa. Know that the relatives and his old friends will be glad to know of his new venture and wishing him

Stopping before the Gazette Office in Gastonia recently, I had to wait on the opposite side of the street until four cars passed. A striking feature of this incident was the fact thaat 3 out of the 4 cars were occupied by Kings Mountain persons, namely: J. O. Panther, of the Kings Mountain Shoe Shop, Sage Fulton and Less Steward.

Add to your list of smooth salesmen, Paul McGinnis, the right hand man of Byron Keeter.

His Honor J. B. Thomasson, got up early yesterday morning and caught a "mess" of fish from the City Lake.

Capt. O'Farrell on his Florida trip met up with a fellow by the name of K. E. Lynch, who is a passenger representative of the Seaboard Railway, but he is not a relation of mine, even though the Captain stated he was a very pleasant per-

By GEORGE---

More stu fffrom those on hand Trip: Mrs. Joe A. Neisler telling yours truly that the various col ors of uniforms in the parade made the event a 'veritable flower gar den" - her own words - Kids got a look at Hialeah Park and several other places of interest, while on sightseeing tour - Also got glimpse of Orange Bowl - Saw both Al Capone's and Al Jolson's estates, but didn't see the Als - Kids voting that despite wonders of Florida. they really preferred dear ole Nawth it was undoubtedly a great exper ience for those who took the trip to Florida, did all the things they did, and saw our band get its ratings. Everyone came back with profuse thanks to the businessmen of the town who supported the band generously. Jones Fortune probably has the best'slant on the thing, from the students standpoint, being as how he is sort of official spokesman for the boys and girls, them selves. What Jones had to say will be found elsewhere.

Tom Fulton is really working to get that painting for the local post office. He's been getting the civic organizations lined up to stand behind him in asking Maj. Bulwinkle, and the Maj. has already promised it to the town; so it seems assured.

Floye Oates (there I go again, I mean Mrs. C. C.) wrote a letter to the Major for the Junior Woman's Club, and the others are coming along, Tom says, and here's hoping we get it. It really will add a lot to the new building.

Have You Seen: Those consolidated newspics of the robot dog and man. Sparko and Elektro, in any of the papers....? What will they be doing next? Louise Brackett riding her bike and wearing that enormous topless straw? sorta cute! And all the gals who work downtown riding bikes after working hours for exercise? That proud look on the faces of the band boys and girls since they came back from Florida?

The first annual field day exercises climaxing the year's activities in the Physical Education Department were held Tuesday afternoom in the ball park with approximately 1.000 children from the three elementary schools taking part. After contests of all kinds Central School made the highest rating of 62.84 per cent and will be presented a beautiful trophy. The percentage system of grading was used so that smaller schools would have an equal opportunity as the larger schools, according to Supt. B. N. Barnes.

Band Plays At Shelby

Kings Mountain School Band, maling it's first appearance since the return from the West Palm Beach contest, went to Shelby last night to play for A. J. Maxwell who spoke to a large assembly there.

Mr. Maxwell, candidate for Govemor of North Carolina, is one in a stream under a Wardner street. A list of many candidates to obtain rescue party worked fifteen minutes the service of the Kings Mountain to reach him. Land in campaign speeches.

Wardner, Idaho, Flory, two-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Flory, tumbled into Creek, was whirled a block downstream by the swollen torrent and badly injured but escaped with his life.

The boy's body lodged in a 75 foot long culvert which carries the

A Story of Turbulent Love!

Walter Wanger presents

George RAFT - Joan BENNETT The HOUSE ACROSS the BAY

with LLOYD NOLAN . GLADYS GEORGE and WALTER PIDGEON

_ state A statical contributions and a compating with the self of a self-

WHAT HAS GONE BEFORE:
When Steve Larwitt's adoration of his beautiful young wife, Brenda, leads him to seek quick riches by a series of shadw deals, he runs afoul of dangerous underworld interests, and an attempt on his life results. Brenda begs him to cease his operations and go abroad with her. When he refuses, she conspires with his friend and lawyer, Slant Kolma, to have Steve brought up on income tax changes which, Slant informs her, will put him in jail and mut of harm's reach for a year. But Slant, who secretly desires Brenda and has his own ideas for Steve's defense in such a way that he is sentenced to ten that he is sentenced to ten wears in Federal prison. Brendo years in Federal prison. Brenda engages an apartment across the Bay from the prison to be near Steve, and the thought that she is waiting for him there gives him comfort. Brenda becomes friendly with Mary Bogale, another "rock widow," and on a noctural walk they encounter a strange but attractive youth, Tim Nolan.

ever produced.

A delivery boy entered the vestibule, rang Brenda's bell, and addressed the speaking tube. "Package for Miss Bentley."

Nolan whispered to his dog. "Go on, Smitty. Follow that guy."

Smitty's forte was obedience. He sauntered into the apartment at the heels of the delivery boy; and Brenda found herself in possession Brenda found herself in possession of a great Dane with the legend on his collar plate: "My name is Smitty. If you find me call Prospect 6760."

When Tim Nolan presented himself at Brenda's apartment in response to her telephone call, she was outraged to see who it was "Why, of all the petty, conniving -- "

"Why, of all the petty, conniving --"
"I know, I know. It's collegiate and underhanded, but you forced me to it. Mind if I sit down? I'm exhausted. Do you realize this maneuvering has taken up practically my entire morning?"
"Didn't I make it definite last night?"
"Very definite, Come away. Smit-da becomes friendly with Mary Bogale, another "rock widow," and on a noctural walk they encounter a strange but attractive youth, Tim Nolan.

Chapter Four

Tim Nolan's telephone conversation continued for quite awhile. In fact, it went on and on, while the two girls fumed, and Mary began calling out comments to him through the booth door. Meanwhile they saw an empty cab draw up in front of the drug store, and made a rush for it; they ran a poor second to the sailor and his girl who climbed in.

When they returned to the booth, its occupant was just emerging.

"See what you done!" Mary berated him. "You and Morley sure fixed us up. It's going to be hours sefore I get home. Say, you got a car?"

The young man looked at them

"I suppose you told him where I live, too?"

"Absolutely not! He tried — but that's the one thing I held out on."
At the same moment, nevertheless, Nolan was patiently lounging in the vestibule of the apartment house. With him was one of the largest Great Danes that particularly large breed of dogs had cefore I get home. Say, you got a car?"

The young man looked at them curiously. "Yes."

"What about a lift? After all, it's pour fault?"

He graciously offered them a lift anywhere they might desired to go, and led the way to a dinky little station wagon parked outside. Brenda declined the favor, but Mary elimbed aboard, said good night, and was on her way home.

The telephone awoke Brenda a few hours later. It was Tim Nolan, who said he felt that he simply must report to her that her friend had reached home safely.

"It was quite an experience—I'm sure you'd be amused at the details. Could I give them to you at luncheon tomorrow?...I see. How about dinner then?"

Brenda declined, firmly though politely. "No, thank you . Yes, 'hat's quite definite. Goodbye."

In the morning Mary arrived with an epic headache, and reported that her boss had fired her from her manicurist's job for being late. Brenda mixed her from her manicurist's job for being late. Brenda mixed her a large glass of bromo seltzer, and scolded her for giving her telephone number to Nolan.

"I suppose you told him where I live, too?"

The telephone awoke Brenda selwe, and resched home safely.

"In sure quite an experience—I'm sure quite a discovery, Mr. Station wagon Driver.

"It was quite a nexperience—I'm sure quite a discovery, Mr. Station wagon Driver."

"I'm sory. I thought this would all be over before we got here. Come on. I want to show you something."

He propelled her to a ship that turned out to be his own private plane. "Look — isn't she a beauty? Look at those lines. There's poetry in them?

She remained no

"Stop dodging—you are afraid.
Don't you know what you have to do when you're afraid of something? Face it!" He pushed hergently into the seat beside him.
She felt the plane speed down the runway and in a moment they were off the ground.

Mrs Branke?"

Washington Snapshots (Cont'd from front page)

work could be better done by other existing federal agencies.

But just before the Senate vote on the Labor Board appropriation, Board press agents mimeographed and gave to hundreds of newspapermen a many-page letter from Sa poss denyng that he is a Commun-

The Senate promptly voted to give $45,600 to Saposs and his economic division.

A lot of fuss has been raised too by efforts of federal agents to put a new farm credit bill through Congress. The purpose is to cut farm mortgage interest rates to three per cent. The trouble is that the govern morning in their new school bus for ment has to borrow the money lend to the farmers, and it can't get that money at 3 per cene. So whether the farmers know it or lower nterest to them would mean more taxes on them or on the people who buy farm produce.

Nevertheless, the country been flooded with letters and pamphlets urgng that the proposal become law.

Another lobbyist campaign of a still different kind is being used by the United States Housing Author- of Mocksville, Mr. and Mrs. W E. ity. Congress last session refused to Jones, W. E. Jones, Jr., and Miss appropriate $800.000,000 for USHA.

So the press agents went to work. Now, USHA at every conceivable Mrs. Norman Morrow and Miss Car opportunity issues press releases naming the cities and towns where projects would be built if the money were available. They point out that "only $46,000,000 remains vailable for USHA projects."

The object, of course, is to people in these various towns cities to write to their Congressmen demanding that they vote money for USHA so that Midvale, too, may get some.

In each case - lower farm mort gage interest rates, housing appro priations, Labor Board funds .. the pressure was exerted on the side of bigger federal appropriations

Lomon Juice Recipe Checks Rhoumatic Pain Quickly

If you suffer from rheumatic, arthritis or neuritis pain, try this simple inexpensive home recipe that thousands are using. Get a package of Ra-Ex Compound today. Mix it with a quart of water, add the juice of 4 lemons. It's easy. No trouble at all and pleasant. You need only 2 tablespoonfuls two times a day. Often within 48 hours—sometimes overnight—splendid results are obtained. If the pains do not quickly leave and if you do not feel better, Ru-Ex will cost you nothing to try as it is sold by your druggist under an absolute money-back guarandruggist under an absolute money-back guaran druggist under an absolute money-back of the Ra-Ex Compound is for sale and KINGS MOUNTAIN DRUG CO.

bigger federal payrolls - things for which the taxpayer will have to dig deeper into his jeans.

Personals

(Cont'd from Society page) and around this morning.

Mr. D. Goforth, little Mildred May and Mrs. Parton visited Mrs. loforth at Duke Hospital Sunday and found her improving nicely after undergoing a major operation ten days before.

The Senior Class of Bessemer Cit High School left Wednesday to | Washington, D. C., They were chap eroned by Mrs. E. W. Neal of the High school faculty.

> Miss Jane Wilson of the Bessemer school faculty was the guest of Mrs Mims and Miss Agnes Norris Friday night, coming over especially to bid them goodbye as she was to leave Tuesday for her home in Georgia.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Griffin had as guests Sunday, Mr. R. W. Kurfees. Margaret Jones of North Wilkesboro. J. W. Cook of Spartanburg, S. C.

Raleigh, May 13.-The drive of the state safety division to set the most modern accident reporting system in North Carolina's cities is proceeding rapidly.

IT'S HOT WEATHER

But — Your shoes must be kept in good condition - and that's where we come in. Call is today for Expert Repairing at most reasonable price considering QUALITY.

Try Us First FOSTERS SHOE SERVICE Phone 154. We Deliver

A BUFFER AGAINST UNFORSEEN EVENTS

There's no finer buffer against unforseen financial pressures than a savings account. People who save regularly, even when they save only small sums, build up a reserve that can tide them over most emergencies. Of course, there's a feeling of satisfaction, of progress, and of self-respect that comes from a steadily increasing savings account. If you haven't an account now, ask us about one today.

We Pay 2 Percent Interest Compounded semiannually.

First National Bank

Member Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation
