Revival At Wesleyan Church

Beginning Sunday, May 26, at 11:00 o'clock, at the Wesleyan Methodist Church of which Rev. M. R. Harvey is pastor, there will be evangelistic services conducted until June 9th.
Rev. T. C. Harvey, brother of the pastor, of Wesleyan Methodist College, Central, S. C., has been secured as evangelist. He is an outstanding minister of wide experience in pastoral and evangelistic labors. He served in the capacity of President of the East Tennessee Wesleyan Conference for seven years. His messages are impregnated with deep truths of the Bible, which grip the hearts of his audience.
The Rev. and Mrs. Brenard Greene, pastor of the Wesleyan Methodist Church of Thornton, Ind., will have charge of the singing. Their solos and duets, as well as their congregational conducting of song, will be very interesting. The pastor met these young people in La Fayette, Ind., some years ago, and declare them to be excellent leaders of song services. Hear them once, then you will come back.
Services at 11:00 and 7:30 on Sunday, and 7:30 each night in the week. Day services announced later. The Sunrise Prayer Band will meet at our Church at 6:00 o'clock Sunday morning for special prayer for the revival. Meet with us and help pray down a revival.

7 Counties in Eastern Area Have New Jails

RALEIGH.—Seven counties of the mid-coastal section of North Carolina have recently remodeled rebuilt new jail facilities in accord with more modern practices of social welfare. W. C. Ezell, director of the division of institutions and corrections of the State welfare department, said recently.
Yenoir, Jones, Craven, Greene and Hyde are now sporting new buildings; and Beaufort and Carteret have remodeled their old, existing plants into modern structures. With the exception of Pamlico the seven counties form a solid block of territory from Hatteras to Bogue Inlet on the Atlantic and running back to Wilson county in the tobacco area.
I think the Craven county commissioners should be especially commended for the good isolation quarters they have incorporated in the new jail at New Bern and the separate space for drunks also provided. The Craven jail is practically complete and will be turned over shortly, Ezell said.

The U. S. Department of Agriculture estimates that one-fifth of all factory workers reemployed since 1932 have gone back to work because of increased purchases of farm families.
Purchases of Argentine flaxseed by American crushers will probably come to a halt as the result of the elimination of Holland and Belgium as an export market for linseed cake made in this country.

Spruill Finishes Campaign For Commissioner Of Agriculture

C. Wayland Spruill, candidate for Commissioner of Agriculture, finished campaigning every county in the state this week and announced his confidence in his election in the primary Saturday.
He said, "There has at no time been a denial from the present Commissioner of the charges I have made concerning the way he has used his office for personal gain."
The Bertie Senator stated that in every speech of his campaign he gave figures to prove that Scott was trying to get re-elected by using the state's money to campaign with. This, he said was done by seedmen and inspectors who traveled the state and campaigned for Scott at the expense of the tax payer.
There has never been any cooperation between the expansion forces of the state and the Department of Agriculture. "This lack of cooperation has caused a duplication of work and a waste of money that must be stopped," he said.
Spruill is a life long farmer and merchant who has served in the General Assembly since 1933. He is a Mason, Shriner, member of the Junior Order and Baptist.

C. Wayland Spruill
For Your Next
Commissioner of Agriculture

C. Wayland Spruill
Farmer, merchant, and a member of the General Assembly of North Carolina since 1933. A man who has devoted his life to the interest of agriculture development. He is the best qualified man to hold this position in North Carolina today.
Mr. Spruill is a Mason and Shriner, also a member of the Jr. O. U. A. M. He served as County Road Commissioner and member of the School Board before going to the Legislature.
Service--
Mr. Spruill has served the best interest of his county and state as officer and representative of the people for 30 years. At all times he supported the farmer and the laborer.
Efficient--
His record of introducing and sponsoring measures that have been passed by his fellow legislators is ample proof of the faith the people with whom he served have in him.
Worker--
Mr. Spruill fought for lower taxes on farms and homes. He introduced the bill that took the 15c levy off State land tax in 1933. At all times he supported aid for more vocational and agriculture training schools.
In his campaign Mr. Spruill time and time again charged Kerr Scott with non-cooperation with the State Extension forces.
He always pointed out that there was a duplication of work and a waste of money because of this lack of cooperation.
