

Senior Play Friday Evening

Confucius say, "Better late than never." When the band went to Florida "China Boy" was postponed. In deference to the characters had more practice. The time is Friday, May 31st at 8:00.

Everyone will be interested in seeing how Mr. Parker (D. F. Hord, Jr.) principal of the high school, and Mrs. Parker (Mary Julia Pollock) manage their children, Bill (Ben Higgins) and Selma (Vera Sarason). Bob (Billy Ruddock) and Julia Mae (Gloria Cornwall), the neighbor's children are always ungrateful. Everything seems to be running fairly smoothly until Mark Willis (Ladd Hamrick, Jr.) a young philosopher from China makes his appearance. George (James Edward Moss) is a wealthy miss who cross Selma quite a bit of trouble. Kame (Eoline Keeter), the Parker's maid of all work, fixes up everything with concoction she buys at the medicine show.

Even Confucius, himself, can't describe a better tonic for spring than seeing "China Boy."

Drinking Pedestrian A Highway Menace

RALEIGH.—The drinking driver has long been a major cause of concern to Ronald Hocutt, Director of the Highway Safety Division, but in recent months the drinking pedestrian has given the safety director a few headaches.

"It is difficult to know just what to do about the individual who takes on a few snorts and then goes tacking down the street or highway, endangering not only his own life but also strange to say, jeopardizing the safety of other people," Hocutt said.

"Everyone knows that the drinking driver is a menace not only to himself but to everyone else on the road, but it is generally thought that the drinking pedestrian endangers no one's life but his own. That may be true in most cases, but there are many times when a motorist swerves to avoid striking an unsteady pedestrian and kills or injures himself or someone else."

"Approximately 40 percent of our traffic fatalities are pedestrians and a good many of the pedestrians killed have had a few drinks under their belts."

"The Highway Safety Division," Hocutt added, "cautions people who drink not to walk on the streets and highways, particularly at night, and we also urge all motorists to be on the watch for unexpected movements of drinking pedestrians. There is a well-known slogan to the effect that 'if you drink don't drive.' We might add 'if you drink, don't walk in traffic.'"

Juniors Lose Opener

Kings Mountain's American Legion Juniors, opening their season here last Monday, with a practice tilt with Rutherford County's Juniors, lost the first attempt, 9 to 7.

Ballard had charge of mound duty for the locals, with Oates handling Forest City's, with Ballard giving up eleven, and Oates keeping the locals to eight. Etters, local center fielder, led the hitting with a double and a triple, along with a single, for three for five.

Coach Troyano released the following schedule for the coming week: Thursday, Cherryville, at Cherryville; Friday, Forest City, there; Monday, Cherryville, here. The home tilt will begin at 3:30.

It was learned by the Herald yesterday that Cobb, who had been scheduled to handle a lot of the mound duty for the local team had been declared ineligible because of no available birth certificate.
