When cotton was combed by hand, the average American used only 14 pounds annually. Today the consumption has jumped to 33 lbs because of improved industrial methods, and the industry gives employment to more than 4 million workers on farms, in factories, and stores.

The growing and selling of Christ mas trees and greens is getting into the big business class in the United States. Last year, farmers sold $10,000,000 worth of these products to form a substantial side income to the usual crop.

More than 2,000 persons make draft-preventing equipment for one large automobile company. The improvement, added five years ago, has since produced wages totaling $10,073,588!

THE POWDERED THIGH BONE OF A HANG'D MAN WAS PRESCRIBED AS AN INTERNAL MEDICINE IN 1718.

The thigh bone from a "hang'd man" was especially recommended by Dr. Boyle in his book of "Medicinal Receipts," published in 1718. Powdered and mixed with a cordial, it was supposed to have a curative effect in dysentery.

Remote control from a planning desk is the latest Hollywood development for a modern kitchen. Not only do controls at the desk regulate baking in the gas range oven, they also set the time and temperature for heating the house, and out-of-doors, turn the lawn sprinkling system on and off automatically, at the desired time.

Charlotte, July 9.—L. S. Mahoney age 29, of 2019 Briarwood Road, automobile truck salesman, was adjudged a suicide yesterday morning by Coroner Fred D. Austin, shortly after the young man had told his wife that a pain in his head was unbearable and then shot himself. The funeral is set for tomorrow at 10 A. M. at the residence.
 The police report quoted Mrs. Mahoney as saying that her husband was unable to sleep through Saturday night because of his headache. About 4:30 A. M. he was quoted, she heard the shot and found him with the automatic pistol beside him in the living room.

Sanford, July 9.—A bookmobile truck loaned by the State Library Commission will be operated in Lee County for the next eight weeks beginning Tuesday.

The bookmobile is coming to the county as a WPA project in co-operation with the Lee County Library and the County Board of Education. A trained librarian will accompany the truck to various points in the county for the purpose of distributing books free to readers in the rural sections.

Dunn, July 9.—Mrs. H. B. Jackson about 25, was critically injured and three others less seriously hurt yesterday in an automobile collision near here.

Darlington, S. C., July 9.—Robbers broke into a barn on the farm of W. M. Arnold and stole several bushels of wheat.

Lumberton, July 9.—One year of hard work in the sale of magazines has enabled Miss Nettie Floyd, blind girl of Fairmont, to purchase the first "Seeing Eye" dog in Robeson county.
 Miss Floyd returned home a few days ago from the "Seeing Eye" dog
