BRIDE HONORED

Mrs. Lindsay McMackin and Miss Jeanette Whinnant were joint hostesses at a pretty party Tuesday afternoon at the home of the latter when they entertained in honor of Mrs. Harold Herndon, a recent bride.
 Mixed summer flowers were effectively used in decorating the living room, where the guests assembled.
 At the conclusion of the party, Mrs. Herndon answered a call at the door and was presented a lovely white basket filled with attractive and useful gifts.
 After the opening of the packages the hostesses served delicious refreshments.
 Those present were the honoree, Mrs. Harold Herndon and her mother, Mrs. Tom Moore; Mesdames Mesdames Marvin Randle, Fred Anthony, Dorreth Moss, Lester Harmon, H. W. Gamble P. K. Harmon, Claud Harmon W. A. Anthony, H. V. Herndon, Charles Whinnant; Misses Louise Gamble, Addie Waters, Annie Roberts and Vida Pryor.

Immediately following the ceremony the couple left for Myrtle Beach where they spent their honeymoon.
 They will occupy rooms in the Parton Apartments on Carpenter street.
 The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Dickerson of Elkin. She was educated at Elkin High School.

LOGAN-DICKERSON

Announcement has been made of the marriage of Miss Pauline Dickerson and L. M. Logan which took place Saturday evening in a quiet ceremony in the pastor's study of St. Matthews Lutheran Church, with the Rev. L. Eoyd Hamm, officiating.
 The bride was strikingly lovely in a costume of sheer navy blue, fashioned with bolero, with revers of linen and lace and white accessories.
 The children were served delicious refreshments. The following were present: Donald and Billie Patterson, Nancy and Marjorie Lou Dickey, Jack and Billy Ruth, Louise Owen Bobby Martin, Sammy and Jerry McCarter, Junior Boone Judy Jenkins, Phyllis Ware, Shirley, John Lewis and Erwin Hughes and Mary Ellen Baker.
