PHONES 10-R AND 88 MRS. A. H. PATTERSON,

BRIDGE PARTY AND SHOWER

Miss Eva Mae Suber was hostess at a lovely bridge and miscellaneous shower Saturday evening at her home on Piedmont avenue, complimenting Miss Mary Sue McGinnis who left this week to enter the Teachers Training College at Cullowhee.

The rooms were arranged with fall flowers. Bridge was played at two tables, with Miss Marguerite Miller of Boone, scoring high and receiving as trophy, a suede bridge table cover. Miss Ozelle Kiser received the bingo prize, a table lamp.

Miss McGinnis was presented a shower of attractive and useful gifts.

Tempting refreshments were served.

Guests included Misses Mary Sue

McGinnis, Nina Jackson, Margaret Cornwell, Mitchell Williams, Ozele

Nixon, Fay Moore, Gussie Halls, et al. Martha Frances McGill and guest Miss Marguerite Miller of

TRY-L CLASS MEETS

Mesdames Harry Kimmel, John Jenkins, Arthur Hamrick, Gurt Hamrick were hostesses to the Try-L Club at their regular meeting at the Margrace Club house last Friday evening.

Contests and games were enjoyed after the devotional period and business session. Mesdames Flo Cloninger and Mrs. Paul Owens, received a number of useful and lovely gifts—the occasion being their birthday anniversaries. Mrs. Carl Surber was welcomed as a new member. The hostesses served a delicious salad course with accessories.

Miss Maude Dengler was hostess to members of the L. L. L. Class of the First Baptist Sunday School on Monday evening. Officers were elected for the coming year.

Pages for the day will be Mrs. George Houser, Misses Betty Neisler, Nancy Nickels, Virginia Summers, Frances Summers, Helen Hay all of Kings Mountain and Miss Elizabeth Matthews of Gastonia. Luncheon will be served by the local chapter, United Daughters of Confederacy.
