Local Student Joins Fla. University Chi Phi

(Special To The Herald)

Charles Thomasson, young son of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Thomasson of 308 East King Street, of Kings Mountain, N. C., has just announced his pledging of the Chi Phi social fraternity.

Charles entered the University of Florida this year as a Junior. He graduated from the Oak Ridge Military Institute at Oak Ridge, N. C., last June.

Already Charles has made a name for himself on the Florida campus.

of the University's R. O. T. C. Band. With the formation of a University Drum and Bugle Corps, Charles has been also drafted to twirl the baton of the new group.

Supplementing band activities, Charles' excellent previous work in Scouting activities has accorded him another honor. He has been pledged to Alpha Phi Omega, the scout service fraternity. A. P. O. is very active on the campus, serving as ushers at football games and sponsors of local Scout troops.

Scholastically, Charles is entering the School of Architecture. The Architectural school at Florida is recognized as one of the best in the country. Charles is applying himself very well and is showing particular talent in his chosen field. With the pledging of the oldest fraternity in the United States and being on the receiving end of many campus honors, Charles is off to a grand start at the University of Florida.
