Club Not To Meet

The meeting of the Senior Woman's Club scheduled for this week has been postponed, and the club will not meet according to an

Meeting Of Vera Sargeant Circle

The regular meeting of the Vera Sargeant Circle of the First Baptist

Mrs. A. G. Sargeant, Baptist Parsonage, on Monday evening with Mrs. Wray Kirby and Mrs. Sargeant as hostesses. The devotional service was con-gave the story of the Birth of Christ Mrs. P. D. Herndon had charge of the program, the topic of which was "Pressing on Through Difficulties." Those taking part on the program were Miss Helen Logan, Mrs. A. G. Sargeant and Mrs. Herndon.

During the business session the Circle elected Mrs. A. G. Sargeant president for the coming year; Miss Annie Roberts, recording secretary and Mrs. Gilbert Hord, corresponding secretary. Mrs. P. D. Herndon, treasurer.

The lighted Christmas tree and exchange of gifts brought cheer and goodwill to the members.

Tempting refreshments were served with the Christmas motif observed.

Miscellaneous Shower

Mrs. Lloyd Patterson and Mrs. Bun Goforth were hostesses at a miscellaneous shower honoring Mrs. Robert Randall, a recent bride. The party was given at the home of Mrs. Patterson on Saturday afternoon.

Games and contests were enjoyed after which a shower of lovely and useful gifts were presented the honoree.

The Christmas motif was observed in decorations and in the tempting refreshments served.

Those present included Mesdames Robert Randall, George Mauney, Eoyd Harrelson, Marvin Goforth, Z. F. Crahanford, Pink Anthony, O. A. Rhea, Ben H. Goforth, Misses Dencie McSwain, Emma Sellars, Pinkie Lee Randall and Hannah McSwain.

Meeting Of Circles

Meetings of the Circles of the First Baptist church were held this week as follows: The Judson Circle met at the home of Mrs. E. C. McClain on Monday evening with Mrs. McClain and Mrs. Baxter Wright as hostesses. The Ann Haseltine Circle met at the home of Mrs. G. A. Bridges on Monday evening with Mrs. Bridges and Mrs. C. C. Edens, hostesses. On Monday afternoon Mrs. Manly Moorhead was hostess to the Lula Herndon Circle.

Decorations suggestive of the Yuletide seasons were used and the Christmas motif also observed in the refreshments served during the social hour. The usual exchange of Christmas gifts were also made at each meeting.

Meeting of Legion Auxiliary

The meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary was held Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Paul Mauney and Mrs. W. S. Mauney, hostesses. The home was arranged with flowers and other decorations in keeping with the season.

Mrs. Paul Mauney had charge of the program, the topic for the month being "Rehabilitation." Mrs. J. E. Mauney gave the message of the National President, Enid Lemstra, the subject of which was, "Christmas, A Season of Rededication of Faith and Hope for Mankind," and "Tapestry of Service," by Mrs. Mark W. Murrill, Chairman of National Rehabilitation Committee. Mrs. Paul Mauney read "They Called Him Mike," by Milo J. Warner, National Commander American Legion.

Plans were made for the sending of cards and Christmas gifts to patients at Oteen and also for Christmas baskets to be distributed. A sweet course with tea was served.

Hostess To Bridge Club

Mrs. Grady Patterson entertained members of her bridge club at her home on Wednesday afternoon with members making up two tables.

Light refreshments were served after the game.

Thomas Jenkins And Miss Underwood Wed

Of interest to Herald readers is the announcement of the marriage of Mr. Thomas Harrison Jenkins of his place and Miss Vernie Lillian Underwood, of Meadows, Va. The marriage took place on Saturday, October 12, at the home of Rev. T. F. Lindsay, the officiating minister. The bride was attired in a street length model of Indian brown with which she wore a short velvet jacket and modish fur trimmed velvet hat.

Mrs. Jenkins is the third daughter of Mrs. Dora Underwood, of Meadows, Va., and the son of Mr. Everett Underwood.

She received her education in Virginia and for sometime has resided in Leaksville, where she has been in the employ of the Marshall-Field Company.

Mr. Jenkins is a son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Howard Jenkins, of Kings Mountain. For the past year he has been located in Leaksville and is also in the employ of Marshall-Field Company.
