Party For Senior Youth Group

The home of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Gantt on North Piedmont Avenue party on Friday evening when the members of the Senior Group of the Youth Division of Central Methodist Church entertained the Senior Group from the First Baptist Church.

The house was resplendent with a lighted Christmas tree, poinsettias and holly.

The young people were entertained with games after which delicious refreshments were served.

Mission Study Concluded

Members of the Missionary Society of Central Methodist Church met at the home of Mrs. W. M. Gantt on last Wednesday afternoon for the concluding mission study of the year.

Mrs. J. E. Mauney presented the study in a most able manner, the topic being "Uprooted Americans," a review of the migrant problem.

Hostess At Bridge Party

Mrs. Donald Blanton was hostess to a small group of friends making up three tables of bridge on Friday evening.

The rooms were unusually cheerful with Christmas decorations and a brilliantly lighted tree.

Tempting refreshments were served with the holiday motif observed.

Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Jessie Kiser, of Charlotte; Mr. and Mrs. Lester Hoke, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Davidson, Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Neill, Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Crook and Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Biser.

Party For Bride-Elect

Mrs. Carl Davidson was hostess at a lovely party on Saturday evening, when she entertained at her complimentary to Miss Willie Ellerbe, of Albemarle and Kings Mountain, whose marriage to Mr. Paul Fry will be an important event of this week.

The rooms were attractively arranged with poinsettias, holly, lighted candles and a lighted Christmas tree.

Three tables of bridge and one table of Chinese Checkers were in play with table prizes awarded Miss Ellerbe, Mrs. John Gamble, Mrs. O. W. Morris and Mrs. E. B. Ellerbe. Miss Willie Ellerbe was presented an exquisite Fostoria vase in her chosen pattern.

Delicious refreshments were served with the Christmas motif cleverly carried out.

Guests included Miss Willie Ellerbe, Mrs. E. B. Ellerbe and Mrs. W. T. Weir, mother and sister of the honoree; Mesdames John Gamble, J. C. Neickels, Eugene Roberts, J. A. Clay, Joe Thomson, John McGill, Claude Hambrigt, O. W. Morris, L. L. Home Arts Club Entertained

Mrs. Carl Mauney entertained the Home Arts Club at a few invited guests Tuesday evening. The festive decorations were effectively used, the lighted Christmas tree predominating. Poinsettias and nan-dina berries were used in the living room. The center piece for the dining room table was tall red tapers and red berries.

Mrs. Grady King had charge of a gram on "Bells." Mrs. Jim Herndon sang, "The Bells of Saint Mary's" and Mrs. Myron Rhyne gave Edgar Allen Poe's reading, "Bells." Mrs. John Gamble was also on the program and assisted Mrs. King in giving each guest a tiny jingle bell.

The hostess served a salad plate and sweet course. On each plate was a tiny red or green burning candle.

Piano Recital

A program of piano numbers, featuring Christmas music, was presented by the pupils of Mrs. N. F. McGill at her home on West Mountain street Saturday afternoon.

After the program games were played and refreshments suggestive of the holiday season were served to the following pupils: Misses Eleanor Myers, Duckie Jenkins, Rachel and Jean McClain, Eugene Eridges, Alda Jean Davis, Mary Beth Hord, Mary Helen Hord, Nancy Neickels, B. T. Wright, Avis Mae Warlick and Norman McGill.

Stag Club Dance Friday Night

One of the social highlights of the holiday season will be the annual Stag Club Dance, Friday night in the Womans Club building. Dancing will begin at 9:30 and the music will be by Morrow's Orchestra.

The younger social set always looks forward to the Stag Club dance and a gala time is contemplated.
