Mrs. Joe Hord Honored On Birthday Anniversary

Mrs. Marjorie Hord honored her mother with a delightful birthday party at her home on last Saturday afternoon from three to five o'clock. The members of the T. E. L. class of the First Baptist Sunday School were her mother's guests. Games, contests and music were enjoyed throughout the afternoon. In a musical contest of Old Old songs Mrs.

Benton Putnam knew the names of most of the group. Miss Rachel McClain played the piano.

The hostess, assisted by Mrs. Doris Littlejohn and Miss George Nantz of Mount Holly, N. C., served a chicken salad course with accessories and a sweet course in which the Valentine idea was carried out.

The honoree received many useful and lovely gifts from her friends.

Settlemyre-Suggs Wedding Solemnize Saturday Afternoon

The wedding of Mr. J. L. Settlemyre, Jr., and Miss Ora Louise Suggs was solemnized at Bethesda Methodist Church in Gaston County Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Dr. H. C. Sprinkle, Jr., pastor of Central Methodist Church, Kings Mountain performed the ceremony.

(The pastor of Bethesda Church.) The ring ceremony was used.

The altar was banked with pines and other greenery. Tall baskets of white gladioli and white snapdragons were effectively arranged in front of the greenery. White cathedral tapers in tall floor candelabra completed the setting.

Miss Dorothy Carson presided at the piano and voice numbers were rendered by Miss Rachel Smith who sang, The Rosary, and a sextet from high school glee club composed of Misses Alice Betty Mauney, Gloria Cornwell, Florence Rhea, Rachel Smith, Fay Moss and Sybil Davis sang: I Love You Truly.

Between the two voice numbers Miss Carson played, Souvenir. The Bridal Chorus from Lehmann was played for the processional and Mendelssohn's Wedding March for the recessional. To A Wild Rose was played during the ceremony.

The ushers were George M. Suggs of Asheville, brother of the bride and Walker Curry of Kings Mountain.

Miss Ruth Suggs sister of the bride was maid-of-honor and the bride's only attendant. She wore a becoming suit of dusty pink with navy accessories and shoulder corsage of pink rose buds.

The bride entered with her father, who gave her in marriage. She was strikingly lovely in a suit of soldier blue with hat and other accessories in blending shade. Her corsage was of red rose buds and valley lilies.

Mr. Settlemyre had as his best man, his brother-in-law, Frank S. Richards of Greenville, S. C.

The bride's mother wore a powder blue ensemble with corsage of pink rose buds and narcissus. The bridegroom's mother wore black velvet with corsage of roses and narcissus.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. White narcissus and cut flowers were used in decoration. A color note of white and green observed throughout.

Immediately after the ceremony the couple left for a trip to the mountains and are now at home in Kings Mountain.

Mrs. Settlemyre is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Suggs of Gaston County. She received her education at State Appalachian Teachers College at Boone, where she majored in physical education. For the past two years she has been director of physical education for girls in the Kings Mountain High School. She is a young woman of charm and pleasing manner and since coming to Kings Mountain has made a host of friends.

Mr. Settlemyre, a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Settlemyre, is a graduate of Kings Mountain High School. He is a talented artist and studied for some time in Washington, D. C., later continuing his studies in Paris, France. He holds a position with the Neisler Mills.

Stag Supper

Mr. Paul Neisler entertained a number of his friends at a quail supper at his home on Gaston street Tuesday evening.

Fruit, sent fresh from Florida by Mr. J. B. Thomasson and grown on his place at Palm Harbor, made an effective decoration for the table.

A quail supper with accessories was served.

Guests included Frank Summers, Jim Smith, Ed Smith, B. S. Neill, Joe Thomson, Grady King, G. A. Bridges, Dr. J. E. Anthony, R. H. Webb, Dr. O. P. Lewis, Charles Dilling, Ladd Hamrick and Arnold Kiser, all of Kings Mountain; R. T. LeGrand of Shelby and Lester Herndon of Grover.

Winchester-Biggers Marriage Saturday Evening

Mr. Charles Locke Winchester, who has been with the King Garage in Kings Mountain for sometime was married Saturday evening to Miss Myrtle Mae Biggers of Charlotte. The marriage took place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Biggers.

The couple left soon after the ceremony for a wedding trip and are now at home in Kings Mountain.
