baskets of heavily laden on Saturday. Lighted candles were in press cantabara completed a simple but effective setting for the impressive exchange of vows.

Music was furnished by Miss Nina Jackson, organist. Prior to the ceremony Miss Jackson played Ave Maria and during the ceremony. To a Wild Rose, by MacDowell, was played. The Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin was played for the processional and Mendelssohn's Wedding March for the recessional.

There were no attendants and the couple entered the church together. The bride, a strikingly lovely brunette, wore a becoming redingote costume in beige with copper brown accessories and corsage of talisman roses. She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Suber and a young woman of exceptional charm.

Mr. Houston, a son of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Houston of Fairland, S. C., formerly of Kings Mountain. He is a young man of splendid character of character and popular among his associates. He had a position with the Kings Mountain Drug Company until he was called to enter training and is not at Fort Jackson, Columbia, S. C.

Mrs. Houston will remain in Kings Mountain where she holds a position with the Margrace Mills. Only the families of the couple witnessed the ceremony. The marriage came as a surprise to their many friends and was the culmination of a love affair begun in their early youth.
