Bride Honored

Miss Martha Frances McGill and Miss Nina Jackson entertained at a bride dinner party at Pine Knot Monday evening, honoring Mrs. Humes Houston, nee Miss Eva Mae Suber, whose marriage to Humes Houston, of Fort Jackson, S. C., was a recent event.

The marriage will take place during the Easter holidays.

Return From Western Trip

Mrs. J. S. Norman of this place and Dr. Dorothy Norman of Gastonia returned Tuesday from California where they spent several months at San Pedro and Los Angeles as guests of Mrs. Norman's daughter, Mrs. Robert Trower, third. While in California Dr. Dorothy Norman did post-graduate work at the Childrens Hospital, Los Angeles. The Normans were accompanied home by Mrs. Trower's daughter, Paul Ann who has entered school in Kings Mountain and will remain with her grandparents for the rest of the year.

Miss Lottie Lynch Five Years Old

Miss Lottie Margaret Lynch entertained a number of her little playmates on Sunday school class-mates at her home on Ridge street Monday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. After delightful games and fun the little folks gathered around the dining room table that was decorated with Easter bunnies and a lovely birthday cake on which five candies burned. Lottie was the recipient of many lovely remembrances.

Laughter-Weygerd

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Laughter of Kings Mountain announce the marriage of their daughter, Mildred, to Mr. Edgar Weygerd, of Baltimore, Md., Saturday, March 22, 1941. The marriage took place in Baltimore.
