of INTEREST to WOMEN

PHONES 10-R AND 88 MRS. A. H. PATTERSON,

Coggins-Crawford Wedding

A wedding of interest to a wide circle of relatives and friends and marked with charm and elegance was that of Miss Octavia Crawford to Mr. Harold Coggins of Gaffney and Kings Mountain, which was solemnized at the First Baptist Church Thursday evening at 8:00 o'clock.

The church was decorated with palms, ferns, and ivy, with floor baskets filled with handsome white gladioli interspersed with seven-branched candelabra holding white cathedral tapers. The pews were marked with clusters of white gladioli tied with satin ribbon.

Rev. A. J. Sargeant, pastor of the young couple, officiated, using the impressive ring ceremony.

Ushers were Paul Hendricks, Tolby Shuford, Ervin Smart, and Paul Coggins of Gaffney, brother of the bridegroom.

Mrs. N. F. McGill was the pianist. She wore blue lace with a corsage of pink roses. Miss Sara Hunnicker, of Charlotte, played the violin. She was dressed in white taffeta with a corsage of red roses. Their numbers were Schubert's, Serenade, and Ava Maria.

Mrs. Harold Crawford was soloist. She was dressed in lilac mousseline and a shoulder bouquet of yellow roses. She sang, I Love You Truly, by Carrie Jacobs Bond.

The bride and bridegroom entered unattended. The music was the Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin and Mendelssohn's Wedding March. To A Wild Rose, by MacDowell, was played during the exchange of vows.

The bride wore a becoming dressmaker ensemble of navy blue with white and navy accessories. Her hat was navy straw with a veil and her flowers were gardenias, white violets and lilies of the valley.

Mrs. W. J. Crawford, mother of the bride, wore blue crepe and a corsage of tallman roses.

Mrs. Coggins is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Crawford of this place. She has a charming personality and commands a wide circle of friends. She attended Kings Mountain High School and is a graduate of Asheville Normal and Teachers' College. For the past few years she has taught in Mecklenburg county. At present she is a member of the school faculty of Charlotte.

Mr. Coggins, a native of Gaffney, S. C., is manager of Kings Mountain Furniture Company, a position he has held since the opening of this firm eight years ago.

Immediately after the wedding a reception was given at the home of the bride on Mountain street.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Crawford received at the front entrance. The receiving life in the living room included the wedding party. Rev. and Mrs. A. J. Sargeant received in the hall and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Crawford directed the guests to the dining room where Miss Annie Roberts presided. The table was covered with a white lace cloth and centered with a crystal bowl filled with lilies and several crystal candelabra were placed at each end.

Bridal ices and cakes were served by Misses Martha McClain, Martha Sue Littlejohn and Fannie Littlejohn. Miss Carolyn McDaniel passed mints. Mrs. J. E. Lipford and Miss Faye Mauney presided at the punch bowl. Dr. and Mrs. R. N. Baird said goodbyes at the last door.

The couple will be at home in Kings Mountain after a wedding trip.

Moore-Roberts

Announcement has been made of the marriage of Miss Rachel Roberts of Shelby, to Frank Moore, of Kings Mountain which took place Sunday, April 13, at the home of the bride's parents. The ring service was used and the ceremony was performed by the bride's brother, Rev. Lawrence Roberts. Only relatives and intimate friends of the two families attended.

The wedding music was rendered by Miss Evelyn Roberts, pianist and Mrs. Ralph Roberts, vocalist. Miss Roberts played, My Heart At Thy Sweet Voice, by Saint-Saens, and Mrs. Roberts sang, The Sweetest Story Ever Told, by Stultis. The muted note of, Believe Me If All Those Eudearing Young Charms were heard as a ceremony accompaniment.

The bride and bridegroom entered the ceremony room together and took their vows before an altar in the living room.

Baskets of white iris and bridal wreath were used and two floor candelabra each holding seven-lit white tapers.

The bride wore a becoming suit of navy blue with navy and white accessories and used a shoulder spray of gardenias.

Mrs. Moore is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. I. Lester Roberts. She was graduated from Shelby High School and since her graduation has been employed by Auto Products, Inc.

The bridegroom, son of Mrs. J. M. Moore and the late Mr. Moore, attended Beth-Ware High School. He is now engaged in farming near Kings Mountain.

After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Moore left for a honeymoon which took them Asheville and other places of interest in western North Carolina. They will make their home at the bridegroom's home near Kings Mountain.

Kiser-Freeman Wedding Solemnized In Impressive Ceremony

Miss Lucie Ozelle Kiser of this Salisbury, were united in marriage Saturday morning at 10:30 o'clock in a simple but beautiful and impressive ceremony at St. Matthews Lutheran Church, Rev. Herman G. Fisher, the pastor, officiated, using the ring ceremony.

Tall palms framed the arch of the chancel and in front of these were posed Easter lilies. Lighted cathedral tapers in seven-branched candelabra were arranged on the altar. The candles were lighted by Arnold Kiser, brother of the bride.

Mrs. Aubrey Mauney, organist, played the following selections: Ave Maria, by Schubert; Traumerel by Schumann; Libetraum, by Liszt Mrs. Charles Williams sang, I Love Thee, by Grieg. Mrs. Mauney played the Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin for the processional, and Mendelssohn's Wedding March for the recessional. During the ceremony, O Perfect Love, was played.

Mrs. Mauney wore a gold costume with corsage of tallman roses. Mrs. Williams wore green with purple accessories and corsage of yellow roses. Mrs. Charles J. Freeman, mother of the bridegroom, wore navy and white with corsage of white roses.

There were no attendants and the bride and bridegroom entered the church together.

The bride wore a smartly tailored dress of juniper green with gold and copper bronze accessories and a corsage of bronze orchids.

Only the close relatives of the couple were present for the ceremony.

The bride, a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Larkin A. Kiser, is a young woman of charming personality and unusually popular with her associates. She attended Lenoir-Rhyne College, Hickory, and the Plunk School of Creative Arts, Asheville. For the past several years she has been a member of the Kings Mountain School faculty.

The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Freeman of Rutherfordton. He is a graduate of the University of North Carolina. He is assistant cashier of the Morris Plan bank at Salisbury.
